City To Honor Dr. Koch

A resolution honoring Dr. Felicia M. Koch, prominent local physician who was named among the ten outstanding women in the metropolitan area by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, was approved unanimously Monday night by Granite City council members.

Mayor Partney announced that Dr. Koch will attend the Jan. 17 session of the council and will bring a framed copy of the resolution and a key to the city.

Dr. Koch, whose late husband, Joseph, also was a physician, was selected for her numerous civic undertakings and her leadership role in many local activities. She is the mother of six children.

Williams Installed by Venice Holy Name Unit

Members of the Holy Name Society held their January meeting Tuesday evening at St. Mark's Catholic Church, Venice, with Tom Williams, incumbent in charge. Officers who had been re-elected by acclamation were installed; those serving during 1966 will be Williams, president; L. M. Daniels, vice-president; Charles Bilbrey, secretary; and Jess Tawney, treasurer.

A discussion was held on the annual corned beef dinner in the church basement March 13.

It was announced that the Holy Name Society will sponsor a basketball tournament for all schools in the Chouteau Valley Conference Feb. 23 at Venice high school.

Rev. Fr. Robert C. McCarthy discussed making a change in the Masses from 7:30-8:00-11:00 a.m. schedule to 7:00-8:00-11:00 a.m. Masses for January will be held by Bill Mehan, Dominic Kiege, and William Boerckel and Gus Daniels and servers for Holy Communion Jan. 3 will be L. M. Daniels and Fred Durer Jr.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 1.

3 Couples Divorced In Circuit Court Here

Three Granite City couples have been granted divorces in the local division of circuit court. Decrees were awarded to Jeanette Whitehorn from Lowell T. Whitehorn. They were married Sept. 19, 1962, in Madison, and separated Oct. 14, 1964. She charged desertion and was given custody of one child. He is ordered to pay $60 per month child support and provide military insurance benefits for the child. He is in the Navy in Florida.

Marie Freeman from Henry Freeman. They were married March 8, 1956, and separated last Nov. 5. She charged habitual drunkenness and her former married name of Marie Shaughnessy was restored.

Pearl Gladys Bunselmeyer from Earl John Bunselmeyer. They were married Dec. 18, 1957. She charged cruelty and obtained custody of two minor daughters. He was ordered to pay $120 per month for support for one and $50 per month for the other.

Two Men Arrested For Fighting In Madison

James L. Billen, 18, of 1835 Second street, Madison, and Anthony Evanoff, 21, of 1718 Seventh street, Madison, were arrested by Madison police at 3 a.m. Wednesday and charged with fighting. Both men posted bonds of $25 each pending hearings in magistrate's court.

A police said they were called to the 1600 block of Fourth street because of a disturbance, and found the two men fighting. Billen is to appear for hearing Jan. 19 in Madison and Evanoff is scheduled for hearing Jan. 18 in Granite City.

Two Cars Damaged

Two autos were damaged in Madison at 1:15 p.m. Tuesday at Thirteenth and Elizabeth streets. Police reported that a car driven by Kay Ora Baker of 1649 Chestnut street was struck from the rear by a car driven by Beradine Jean Shellman, 1307 Kirkpatrick Homes, when the Baker car stopped for a stop sign.

CD AUXILIARY POLICE GRADUATION. Chief of Police Raymond J. Willard presents graduation certificates to Claude Bowman of the Granite City auxiliary, 1411 Nineteenth street. Thirteen local recruits were among the 26 auxiliaries who completed a ten-week basic training course, sponsored by the Granite City police department and civil defense unit.

Mayors, Chiefs Attend CD Graduation Fete Here

More than 60 persons, including the mayors of three communities, attended graduation exercises Tuesday evening for 36 auxiliary police officers who last week completed a ten-week Civil Defense basic police training course.

Certificates were presented by Granite City Chief of Police Raymond J. Willard to 13 Granite City recruits, ten auxiliary police members from Collinsville and three Bethalto men.

Ceremonies were held in the Granite City civil defense building, 1411 Nineteenth street, with Victor H. Koenig, local CD director, introducing Mayor Donald Partney, Mayor Norman Weber of Collinsville and Mayor Erwin Kiege of Bethalto. Other distinguished guests present included Joseph Kurla, Collinsville civil defense director and Peter Davis, Bethalto police chief and CD director. Families of several of the graduating officers also were in attendance.

Farmers Should File Tax Form by Jan. 17

Formers who earned at least two-thirds of their 1965 gross income from farming should file their declaration of estimated tax for 1965 Federal income tax return on or before Monday, Jan. 17. Form 1041-ES should be used for this purpose.

Jay G. Philpott, district director of Internal Revenue for central and southern Illinois, said that farmers need not file this estimate if they file their final Federal income tax return Form 1040 and pay in full any tax due by Feb. 15.

"Farmer's Tax Guide," which furnishes more detailed information on this subject, may be obtained by writing to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, or from the county farm agent.

Fire Found Inside Auto

A fire was found in the back seat of an auto owned by Dewey Howell, 2039 Illinois avenue, while it was parked at the rear of his home, he reported at 8 a.m. Wednesday. Those discovering the fire were identified as Larry Mitchell and Michael Curtis. Howell said he parked the car at 11:30 p.m., locking the doors but leaving the left front window open slightly.

Mishap at Stop Sign

Kenneth L. Buss was charged with a stop sign violation after his auto struck the right rear of a truck from another driven by Glenwood F. Mell, 1025 McCambridge avenue, at 10:55 a.m. Tuesday at 18th and Wedgwood streets. Buss was summoned for a stop sign.

Uniform Tax Assessments Urged on Twp. Assessors

Tax assessors in Madison County were urged once again to first in revenue. Property Tax Stamps. In discussing property sales, he noted that the Federal tax stamp will be eliminated from deeds effective Jan. 1, 1968, and efforts are being made for state legislation for a stamp act.

The assessors also were informed that a legal opinion will be sought to determine if leased equipment may be assessed against those renting it under the 1966 goal will be to tax laws.

Frank L. Rissi of Collinsville, a member of the county board of review, stressed the importance of establishing and maintaining a photographic and card system on all real estate in each township. Berghoff said that to obtain 90% of the full cash value of the property, the assessor must equalize at 95% to assure the one-half figure.

He also commented that a commission studying tax rate limitations and full value assessments should be reported to the county clerk. This information will be forwarded to the state revenue department for review. Some property values are over-assessed and some are under-assessed and many are not assessed at all, depriving user and ex-officio tax collector.

Truck Abandoned on Bridge After Wreck

A truck owned by the William Henderson Hauling Service of St. Louis was impounded by Venice police Tuesday after they found the vehicle wrecked against the south railing of the McKinley bridge where it had been abandoned by the driver.

Police identified the owner through the license numbers but were unable to locate William Henderson, who was listed as driver. St. Louis police checked Henderson's home and reported he could not be located. St. Louis police told Venice officers they thought it possible the driver might have been thrown from the truck into the river.

Tuesday night, however, Henderson appeared at Venice police headquarters. He said he was not driving the truck and did not know the name of the driver who was operating it at the time of the accident at 3:10 p.m. Tuesday. The truck struck the abutment of the east approach the bridge and the truck railing.

Henderson claimed the truck, but police impounded it until the driver appears at police headquarters to make a report of the accident. Police said charges of careless driving and leaving the scene of an accident will be filed when and if the driver appears.

Rotary Members Told Of Income Tax Changes

Tom Wolff, a partner in the firm of Zandell & Wolff of St. Louis, certified public accountant, discussed changes in the Internal Revenue Service tax code enacted by Congress last year at a luncheon meeting of the Granite City Rotary Club Tuesday in the YMCA.

Wolff, an attorney as well as a CPA, explained how some changes could benefit individuals and businesses. A question-and-answer period followed. Carl Speckling was program chairman.

It was announced that the local club was rated first in attendance among district clubs during November, according to a district governor's report. Fifty-one persons attended the last meeting.

Levee District Told to Repair Riverfront Dike

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers has instructed the East Side Levee and Sanitary District that it must correct as soon as possible structural weaknesses in a section of riverfront levee that would constitute a danger point in a period of a high river flood stage. The area is south of the Quad-Cities.

A. J. Kraemer, chief engineer of the levee district, told the board that "the time has come when this can't be put off any longer. This thing has been hanging fire for a long time and the Army Engineers are insisting that it be done."

In response to a question by a board member as to how long the problem has existed, Kraemer said "it was one of the first things thrown at me cold when I came here (with the levee board) in April 1961."

Actually, Kraemer explained, the demand for correction of the levee structure also has been made of the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. because the situation results from several concrete intake tunnels through the levee which extend through easements held by the water company. The engineer said that as nearly as he can determine, the tunnel easements were held by the water company before the levee district was organized in 1907.

Disclaim Responsibility

The water company has disclaimed any responsibility in the matter, the levee board was told. The section of levee involved is located about 1000 feet north of the North Pumping station in East St. Louis.

On a motion by William "Mike" Ebersold, Venice, the board authorized Kraemer to obtain estimates on the cost of an engineering study to determine cost.

Board members also authorized Board President Lawrence Tolar to order the survey if the cost of the study appears within reason.

The board Wednesday adopted a resolution confirming the election in December of Tolar as board president and other reorganization procedure, including appointment of administration employees. No changes were made in the roster of appointed officials.

Payment of $1116 and $26,394 to Horner & Shurin Engineers, $2116 to General Contracting Co. and $30,397 to Midwest Blacktop Roads, all for work on the Lanesboro Sewage-treatment plant, was authorized. Claims totaling $19,190 and a December payroll of $45,200 also were approved in the meeting.

Payroll Now Normal

Ben Campbell, chief clerk, told the Press-Record that the levee district payroll is "back to normal" due to receipt of tax monies during December. A treasurer's report by Thomas Stalcov, mayor of Pontoon Beach and treasurer of the levee district, stated the district received $144,891 in 1964 taxes during December, as well as a $22,128 settlement of 1964 taxes and a $9,381 settlement of 1964 taxes. Receipts for the month totaled $33,971, while total disbursements amounted to $24,526, leaving the district a balance of $11,345.

Tolar announced committee appointments for the 1966 year, following confirmation of his election as president.

The appointments, with the first named as chairman, are: Finance—J. A. Grant of Granite City, Morris Campbell of East St. Louis and William Ebersold of Venice; judiciary—George Duff of East St. Louis, Grant and Campbell; state and municipal relations—Ebersold, Duff and Campbell.

Health and Public Order—Ebersold, Duff and Campbell; labor—Grant, Campbell and Duff; engineering—Campbell, Duff and Ebersold; and rules—Campbell, Duff and Grant.

Shoplifter Caught

A young shoplifter caught at the Reese Drug store in the Bellemeade Village shopping center at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday was turned over to the Granite City youth officer.

Chamber to Join Statewide Program to Attract Tourists

Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce directors voted Tuesday night to endorse and participate in the Illinois tourism program, under which the state will provide $50 for each $40 contributed in this 11-county region.

The Tourist Promotion Committee headed by Nelson R. Hedger will cooperate with regional tourism officers in developing necessary funds and in developing local and regional pamphlets, place mats and circulars.

A total goal of $1491 for the next two years has been set for the business firms here; overall regional budget is $44,164. Quad-City brochures will include specific information on how to find tourist attractions, municipal buildings, restaurants, motels, etc. The brochure used in the previous biennium was more general.

Industrial Maps
The Chamber board approved purchase of 250 additional multi-color industrial site maps for use by its Industrial Development Committee, and authorized "get acquainted" dinners at various government bodies in this area. Tri-City Regional Port District progress was cited during the monthly meeting.

It was announced that area industries are being contacted in regard to Horseshoe Lake park development plans and that a major "clean up, paint up, fix up" program will be completed in the late spring in all sections of the Quad-Cities.

Galle Added to Board
Melvin L. Galle, Citizenship Committee chairman, was appointed to the Chamber board by President Carl E. Madhatter. It was decided to present a certificate of recognition to Howard D. Wellman, newly appointed manager, who has resigned from the board due to being transferred to Burlington, Wis.

The Citizenship Committee recently is preparing to sponsor courses in practical politics and world affairs, and the Transportation and Highway Committee plans further contact with the Illinois Department of Public Works and Building to speed the state's proposed five-year completion schedule on Route 151, the riverfront highway.

Legal Opinion Sought on $200 Expense Allowance

A written opinion from the Granite City township attorney on the legality of the $150-a-month increase in the expense allowance granted early last month to James Barton, township tax assessor, was requested Monday night by Granite City council members.

The request was made by Alderman Sternberg during the town board meeting of the city council session. The increase in the expense allowance, boosting it from $50 to $200 a month, was approved at the Dec. 6 session of the council.

Sternberg pointed out the expense allowance should be the actual amount expended by the assessor in carrying out the functions of his office, and that a detailed expense accounting should be required.

Alderman North and Bartolacci told Sternberg that Town Attorney William Schooley had given the council an opinion at the Dec. 6 meeting, and that the problem of paying the added amount would be on the shoulders of the town supervisor.

The term legal opinion in regard to the Dec. 6 letter of the town attorney was challenged by Alderman Moerlein, who termed it "more of a personal opinion."

The council voted 11-5 for the written legal opinion. With the $200 monthly expense allowance, the tax assessor pay amounts to $10,000 a year, former assessor Von Dee Cruse received $7200 a year, including a $50 a month expense allowance.

The city council increased the assessor pay last spring to $7800 a year, plus the $50 monthly expense allowance, even though the salary was set at $6000 by electors attending the annual town meeting in April.

At the Dec. 6 session it was brought out that townships with 40,000 to 50,000 population could pay the tax assessor up to $10,000 a year and that the adjustment of salary could be made not less than 30 days in advance of a new assessor taking office on Jan. 1.

Since the council could not act on the salary on Dec. 6, it was decided to boost the expense allowance.

Injured in Fight

Edgar Byar, 27, of the Glass Doll Trailer Court, was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 8 p.m. Wednesday for abrasions to the left ear and chin and a subdural injury received in a fight at Madison. According to Madison police, Byars was injured by his father-in-law, Noah White, 48, of 1517 Market street, in a fight at White's home. No arrests were made. Byars was released from the hospital after treatment.

A study of the Madison-Jersey-Macoupin counties joint college proposal is being made by the Education Committee, which will submit a recommendation to the Chamber board.

Zoning and planning needs were discussed with the committee pledging cooperation with local, county and regional planning commissions and public bodies in achieving their objectives.

Rink Bids in March
Nicholas R. Brink was applauded for his leadership of the ice skating rink-recreation center Park Commissioner William Kozysak said it is hoped to seek construction bids by Feb. 15 or March 1, with work starting by March 15 or April 1.

Plans were made for a Chamber Advisory Committee meeting Jan. 12 and for attendance at an "aircade meeting for citizenship action" Feb. 16 at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.

The directors voted to support proposed abolition of the U. S. electoral college, replacing it either with election of the president by a national voting majority or through a system of one vote for each Congressional district and two votes for each state.

Committee Reports
Committee chairman reporting included Leo H. Kozysak, membership, E. G. Schmitt, industrial development, Hedger, tour promotion; and Melvin D. McCay, transportation and highways.

Matthias presented, Vice-President M. Freeman Wolfe reported on the Citizens Committee on government affairs, Vice-President Howard W. Kaseberg discussed the Citizens Committee on zoning and civic improvement, and development, Treasurer William F. Winter reported on education, finances and membership.

Rev. Paul Sims was welcomed as the new Quad-Cities Ministerial Association representative on the board, and Harry Madhatter's barber shop was approved for Chamber membership.

A recording of "What's the Is-est?" dealing with 1966 federal legislation, was played after the dinner meeting.

Invest Idle Funds
In other business, board members authorized investment of $200,000 from the education fund in 90-day government time certificates, with an accumulated return of $1200 interest over the three-month period.

Also by resolution, transfers were effected from the working cash fund of $1800 to the education fund and $5000 to the building fund.

Roy Musick, board secretary, reported that "restricted fund," totaling $2608, has been turned over to Donald Phillips, the school treasurer.

The December bill list approved for payment included $13,176 from the education fund; $3128, building fund; $1863, transportation fund; and $609, Illinois Municipal Retirement fund.

Monthly bill lists totaled $1186, including $1277 to Ardressed Dairy; $368, Edday Foods; $220, Meleto Foods; and $156, J&J Meats.

Other payments approved from the education fund were: $549, Triangle Typewriter Co., for supplies and repairs; $110, Blackwell Weliandy Co., chairs, desks and bookcases; $926, Illinois Power Co.; $2008, teachers' retirement system; $4461, with holding tax; $693, Venice Federation of Teachers union dues withheld; $223, Smith Schaff Paper Co.; $200, Dr. John E. Lee, (dentist fee); and $200, physician's fee.

School of Missions $59 Million Buying in 1965 Through Sept. 30

The annual church-wide School of Missions for Nidderingham Memorial Methodist Church will have its first session on Sunday evening beginning at 6 o'clock. This school is under the direction of the Commission on Missions and its chairman, Mrs. William Marcus, and provides classes for all ages under the general theme, "Mission: The Christian's Calling."

The series of studies will continue for four Sunday evenings, beginning each evening with 6 o'clock covered dish supper. Following the supper hour, the classes will convene at 7 o'clock and at 8 o'clock a missions film will be shown in Wesley Hall.

The film for this coming Sunday will be, "Almost Neighbors." The pre-school class will be taught by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gusewelle, first and second graders by Mrs. Elmer Frohardt, and fifth and sixth graders by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Briggs.

Miss Kathy Middleton, US-2 missionary now working at the Leslie Bates Davis Neighborhood House in East St. Louis, will be the guest instructor for the junior high class. The senior high youth will be led by Rev. Robert Lorenz, assistant minister of Nidderingham Church.

Rev. R. Paul Sims, minister of the church, will be the instructor for the adult mission study. The adults will use "The Christian's Calling" by Eugene L. Stockwell.

GC Man to Face Parlay Card Charge Next Week

John C. Zinkon of Granite City is one of five men scheduled to appear in federal district court at Springfield next Wednesday to face charges of violating federal wagering laws by receiving parlay cards and bets on sporting events in behalf of a Wood River tavern operator.

Eighteen Alton-Wood River area residents pleaded guilty Tuesday to the same charges before Judge Omer Poos. L. W. Gerdeeman, 54, the tavern operator, was fined $500 and placed on two years probation. The others were fined $1000 each, but the judge said the court would remit $750 if each defendant pays a $250 fine within a 60-day period.

Judge Poos said he did not impose the maximum $5000 fine as there was no evidence of syndicate gambling or racketeering.

Warriors Top Riverview 65-55, Win Fourth Cage Game in Row

RALPH SACKETT
Four in a Row

GC Boosters Club To Meet Jan. 10

The Boosters club of the Granite City Fighting Warriors will hold its first meeting of the new year Monday, Jan. 10.

Emerald Daves, president, said the meeting will follow the East St. Louis-Granite City sophomore game scheduled for 6:30 p.m.

Warrior coach Ralph Sackett will show films of Granite City basketball games.

Elmer Lasker, Germany, held the world chess championship for 27 years. He reigned from 1894 through 1921.

The Fighting Warriors of Granite City stretched their basketball winning streak to four games, and six out of the last seven, by downing the Riverview Gardens Rams 65-55 across the river Tuesday night.

The Warriors took a slim 11-10 first-quarter lead and were never headed thereafter. They led 27-21 at the half and 41-32 after the third period.

Elmer Wortham and Larry Ripka led the Warriors with 17 and 13 points, respectively. Terry Moore added 12 points to the winning cause.

Mike Brinkmeyer (6'7") led the Rams with 19 points and 19 rebounds in the game. Teammate Rusty Bourg chipped in with 12 points for Riverview Gardens.

Although the Rams made one more field goal than the Warriors, Granite City took advantage of 29 Riverview Gardens fouls to sink 23 free throws; the Warriors fouled 14 times and the Rams sank 11 free throws.

"We have played better ball games in the past," commented coach Ralph Sackett, "but we did hustle real well against Riverview."

The Rams forced Granite City to run with the ball more than Sackett would have liked, but the Warriors caught themselves in time to win the game.

Utilize More Players. "We're getting to the point where we can play eight boys and some of the others a rest if they need it," Sackett said.

Sackett pointed out that Granite City played the game with two minor differences from other games. The first was the fluorescent lighting in the Riverview Gardens gymnasium, and the SUPREME EFFORT is made by Madison's Steve Geroff (50) to snatch a rebound away from Highland's Craig Manwaring (45) in a Midwestern Conference game won by the Trojans 85-78. Geroff is 6'1" and Manwaring stands 6'7". Alton Rendell (52) and Ron Burt (40) look on for the Trojans.

Statistics Fail to Tell Real Story of Who's Who in Area Cage Directory

Several oddities shaped up in the fight for conference and overall basketball supremacy among this area's 14 cage teams, as they returned to scheduled play following the holiday break.

Dupo, current leader in the Midwestern Conference race, has a league mark of 4-1 but an overall record of 4-6. The Tigers have all record of 4-6. The Tigers have scored all of their victories in Midwestern action, and are only one point ahead of their league foes in scoring despite winning four of five starts.

Granite City, in seventh place in the seven-team Southwestern Conference, boasts a league mark of 1-4 but has outscored conference opponents by four points in the five games played. The Warriors, with the help of the Pacific holiday tourney and a non-conference game against Riverview Gardens, now hold a 7-4 overall mark.

The Southwestern Conference leader, Belleville (4-1), has only one victory, second in that conference with a 2-1 mark, but has been outscored by its opponents by seven points; and Aviston, last in the MCM Conference, has averaged only 35.5 points a game while giving up an average of 75.7 per tilt.

Thayer, Manwaring Lead Scorers. In the area's individual scoring race, Madison's Dale Turner (20) leads the pack with a 26.09 average for 21 games. He has scored 287 points.

Highland's Craig Manwaring continues to hold second place with a 21.8 average for 12 games, in which he has netted 262 points. Rich Essington of Venice, who this week is third with a 21.2 clip in 13 games, with 278 points.

Clennis Cook of Dupo retains fourth place with a 21.1 average, just ahead of Percy Dillon of Venice, with a 21-point-per-game average.

Joe Wiley of Belleville and Tom Campbell of Highland are fifth and seventh with averages of 20 and 19.9 points a contest, respectively. Tom Parker of Collinsville, Roxana's Terry Dalrymple and Alton's Jim Campbell round out the top 10 with marks of 18.3, 18 and 17.3 each.

Granite City's Steve Geroff (50) and Ron Burt (40) look on for the Trojans.

Trojan Hustle Stronger Than Highland's Height

UCLA did it against a much bigger Michigan State team in the Rose Bowl, and Madison's Trojans did it against a much taller Highland team in a Midwestern Conference game at Madison Tuesday night.

The Uclans upset Michigan State 14-12 and Madison upset Highland 85-78.

Despite the awesome size of Highland, the scrappy Trojans trailed at halftime by only one point. Madison had held a slim 37-38 lead before the Bulldogs' Tom Campbell (6'5") sank a jump shot with six seconds left, enabling Highland to take a 38-37 lead into the dressing room.

Earl McClanahan's crew came back to outscore Highland 24-14 in the third quarter and take a lead that was never relinquished.

The Trojans, playing a man-to-man defense, gave away nearly five inches height per man to the Bulldogs, yet forced Highland's big men—Craig Manwaring (6'7") and Dean Burk (6'7")—to shoot from the outside.

Dale Turner poured in 12 points during the second quarter, and Ron Burt, smallest man at 5'8", sparked the Trojans' third-quarter surge with five jump shots good for 10 points. He finished the evening with 20 points.

Highland Closes Gap. With 36 seconds remaining in the game, Highland closed the gap to 81-78 when Campbell made two free throws after an Alton Rendell foul.

Turner sank a jump shot to make the score 83-78; Highland's Manwaring missed a jump shot; and Steve Geroff added Madison's final points with a clean 25-foot jump shot to end the game at 85-78.

Madison shot a blazing 54.9% from the field during the first half and ended up with 52.9% for the game.

All five Madison starters—Dale Turner, Ron Burt, Steve Geroff, Alton Rendell and Gary Lusk—played the full game, with no substitutions.

"We Followed Game Plan." "We followed our game plan pretty well. All we wanted to do was to keep those big kids from getting cheap baskets underneath," said coach McClanahan.

In a previous game with Highland in the Mater Dei tournament last week, Dale Turner sparked a losing Madison cause with 35 points. The Bulldogs won the game, 90-76.

"We thought they'd try to bottle Dale up, so we gave the others a chance to open the game up," McClanahan said.

Gary Lusk sparked the fourth quarter for Madison with four jump shots. The left-handed shooter finished the game with 16 points.

The game leaves the Trojans with a 7-4 record and Highland with a 4-1 mark.

GC Man Guard On Famed '41 MU Grid Team

While the Missouri University Tigers were winning the Sugar Bowl game 28-18 over Florida in New Orleans, the famed 1941 team celebrated their 25th reunion the same day.

Jon Tarpoff, a Granite City businessman, was a member of that 1941 squad which lost to Fordham 20-0 in a driving rain storm in the Sugar Bowl classic of 1942.

Tarpoff was a guard on that team, the first to successfully utilize the "split-T" offense.

"Not every member of the team made it, and they didn't introduce us at halftime, but I had a good time, anyway," Tarpoff said.

When asked how he compared his '41 squad with the '65 Tigers, he said, "Naturally I'm partial toward our team, but I'd have to say each team is just as good as the other."

JOHNSONS ADDRESS LADIES' DEMO CLUB

The Madison Ladies' Democratic club met Monday evening at the Sportsman's club. The monthly meeting was opened with the pledge of allegiance to the flag and the Lord's Prayer in unison.

A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Virginia Schreiber. Mrs. Elizabeth Wisnick, a member of the club, introduced Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Johnson, who spoke and showed slides taken in China and Japan.

A display of articles from various parts of the world was viewed. It contained purses, ornaments and attire.

Members present were Mrs. Ida Dant, Mrs. Ann Bialczak and Mrs. Cora Barr, hostesses for the month and Mrs. LaVerne Harris, Mrs. Carolyn Pruitt, Mrs. Schreiber, Mrs. Geneva Blumstock, Mrs. Juanita Brown, Mrs. Josephine Knevezich, Mrs. Mary Brudick, Mrs. Josephine Georgeff, Mrs. Florence Spahr, Mrs. Veronica Kula, Mrs. Margaret Fecurka, Mrs. Mary Hlava, Mrs. Marie Siawar, Mrs. Frances Troits and Mrs. Julia Godan. The group will meet again Feb. 7.

BETA GAMMA CLUB TO MARK ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Lois Hoffman entertained members of the Beta Gamma club in her home, 1624 Clark avenue, Tuesday evening. Plans were discussed for an anniversary party of the club March 19. The remainder of the evening was spent as a social gathering with games and prizes. Mrs. Judy Yocis was welcomed as a member.

Members present included Mrs. Colleen Evanoff, Mrs. Shirley Kattenbacher, Mrs. Wilma Pulek, Mrs. Jackie Frizzell, Mrs. Marie Bley, Mrs. Kathryn Jones, Mrs. Mary Ann Gary, Mrs. Sharon Eck and Mrs. Barbara Goldschmidt.

Mrs. Frizzell will be hostess to the members in her home, 1633 Second street, Feb. 4.

A flag ceremony was used to open a meeting of Junior Girl Scout Troop 46 of St. Mary's in the school cafeteria Monday evening. Mrs. Helen Werner and Mrs. Winnie Sasyk were in charge and Carol Sasyk qualified for the sign of the arrow badge.

Each patrol chose a badge to work on as a patrol. The Blue Jays picked the home, health and safety badge. The Green Jays collected badge; and Bucy Bee patrol, pen pal badge.

The girls completed the third part of active citizenship badge requirements and will start on another badge as a troop next meeting. Plans were made to visit a government agency Monday afternoon.

Girls present were Vickie Mc Murtry, Karen Smith, Penny Schienschang, Jean Long, Helen Zelenka, Deborah Krpan, Debbie Kierski, Kathy Werner, Mary Barko, Joeline Hamilton, Carol Sasyk, Debbie Votupal, Jackie Pfeiffer, Mary Stokes, Debbie Spirek, Helen Day, Roseann Hudzik, Rose Mary Garcia and Roberta Papa.

ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. Geneva Gibson was hostess to the Jolly Matrons club in her home Tuesday. A luncheon was served by the hostess, with the birthdays of Mrs. Lottie Ostresh and Mrs. Barbara Fullmer observed.

Games were played during the afternoon, with Mrs. Lottie Ostresh winning first place; Mrs. Anna Mae Murphy, second; and Mrs. Betty Landers, a guest, third place. Mrs. Madeline Burton also was a guest.

Others present were Mrs. Barbara Wood, Mrs. Margaret Presnell, Mrs. Johanna Mitovich, Mrs. Helen Thiele, Mrs. Charlotte Davis, Mrs. Margaret Gram and Mrs. Fullmer. Mrs. Fullmer will be hostess to the group in two weeks. The birthdays of Mrs. Gram and Mrs. Mitovich will be observed at that time.

Mrs. Ostresh, 2044 Thirteenth street, reports she has a pussy-willow tree almost in bloom, rare for this time of year, plus a dandelion in full bloom. The onions and tulips also are pushing up out of the ground.

NEW YEAR'S VACATION
Mr. and Mrs. Al Barbre, 1724 Fourth street, spent a New Year's vacation with their daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. K. A. Mangels and sons, in Independence, Mo. The Barbres returned Monday evening.

GIRL SCOUT ELECTION

Weekly meetings of Junior Girl Scout Troop Three resumed Monday afternoon in the lunch room of Louis Bar school with the leader, Mrs. Bernadine Weidner. The Cardinal patrol gave the opening, after which each girl told of a New Year's resolution.

Election of officers for two months was held, with Peggy Stagner elected as scribe and Sharon Serini as treasurer. The leader and girls discussed trips they would like to make in the near future.

Plans have been made for the girls to visit an animal shelter Jan. 15, at which time they will deliver blankets and rugs they have secured. More blankets and rugs are needed.

They are also discussing a mother-and-daughter banquet and a camping trip. Jean Paskus was elected patrol leader of the White Arrow patrol; Becky Hall, leader of the Horseshoe patrol; Kathy Leisner, leader of the Busy Bee patrol, with Venus Wood as assistant leader; and Delilah Sander, Cardinal patrol leader, with Joann Weidner as assistant. Gale Chastain will report on members of the troop who are ill, and Etta Napper will be the reporter for the birth day group.

The group made a resolution to be better Girl Scouts throughout the new year. The Horseshoe patrol closed the meeting. Those present included Selma Affeldt, Ruth Ann Fanning, Roberta Hall, Debbie Kelly, Barbara Kiesel, Kathy Leisner, Pat Malone, Linda Nixon, Laura Niehaus, Gloria Reeves, Christie Sletty, Janice Warchol, Kathy Wilson and Myrna Verrett.

LUNCHEON MEETING OF YOUNG ADULT CIRCLE

The Young Adult Circle of the First Methodist Church met Tuesday evening for a monthly meeting. Mrs. Doris Paterson and Mrs. Kathryn Jones were hostesses during the noon hour, and the group arrived with covered dishes.

A short business meeting was held, with the president, Mrs. Catherine Oak, in charge. The group worked on the church calendar, which it is selling as a project.

Mystery pal names were drawn for the new year. Those present were Mrs. Lorraine Creighton, Mrs. Emma Graves, Mrs. Mary Beasley, Mrs. Betty Ballentine, Mrs. Thelma Black and the hostesses.

PAST NOBLE GRANDS ELECT MR. MCBRIAN

The Past Noble Grand club of the Delray 786 Rebekah lodge met in the home of Mrs. Mary Cannoles, 1536 Third street, Tuesday evening. Miss Margaret Brown served as co-hostess with Mrs. Connie Vance, president.

Mrs. Estella McBrian was elected president; Mrs. Naomi James, vice-president; Mrs. Leora Rogers, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Ruth Hannebrink, reporter.

Lunch was served by the hostesses. Those present were the newly-elected officers and Mrs. Lillian Holtschneider, Mrs. John Gray, Mrs. Minnie Perry, Mrs. Verna Willman and Mrs. Chlo Maxon. Mrs. Maxon will hold the next meeting in her home, 1545 Fifth street, Feb. 1.

MRS. VOLOSKI CANASTA HOSTESS

Mrs. Julia Voloski was hostess to the Social Six Canasta club in her home, 1610 Seventh street, Tuesday evening. Miss Papa.

ACTIVITY AND PROGRESS on construction of the new computer-operated hot strip mill in Granite City Steel's multi-million dollar modernization and expansion program is shown in this view looking south. The picture was taken from the steam generating plant at 19th street and Madison avenue. Going into the three buildings under construction are 18,000 tons of structural steel, 8,000,000 pounds of reinforcing rods and 1,600,000 pounds of steel anchor bolts, imbedded in the concrete flooring to hold equipment. The 4125-foot long building on the right is for slab storage, while down the center is the 1500-foot long foundation for the motor room and related building and the long narrow excavation to the left is the beginning of the work on the rolling mill which will be 1900 feet long and 10 feet wide.

Hill-Road Accident

A parked car owned by Winston Mayes, 1721 Third street, Madison, was damaged at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday by an auto which fled the scene. The accident occurred in front of Mayes' home where his 1966 model auto was parked. It was damaged at the left rear.

Teresa Rhoads was a guest player.

Secret pals exchanged Christmas gifts during the evening. Winners in canasta games were Mrs. Lorraine Gonterman, first; Mrs. Helen Kuback, second; and Mrs. Sophie Greene, third.

Other members playing were Mrs. Voloski and Mrs. Nellie Barger. The hostess served lunch at a late hour. Mrs. Gonterman will be the February hostess in her home, 3848 Lake street.

Den Two of St. Mary's Cub Pack 47 met Monday evening with Mrs. Bea Stentzer, den mother.

The boys opened the meeting with the pledge of allegiance to the flag and a song. Mrs. Stentzer asked them to thank their mothers for assisting with refreshments during the year, and Mrs. Rita Barnhart, Mrs. Bonk and Mrs. Janet Werner for Christmas party cookies.

Mrs. Bulva was hostess for Monday's meeting. Those present were John Bulva, Donald Karpowicz, Aloyes Ruesing, Jerry Planitz, Kevin Werner, Victor Barnhart, Paul Bonk, Ricky Maries, John Piechocinski, George Stentzer, James Hancock and the den chief, John Stentzer.

Tip to Motorists

Believe it or not, motorists are the cause of two out of every five fatal accidents.

Two Reckless Homicide Cases to Go to Jury

Cases of two drivers charged with reckless homicide following fatal accidents on Interstate 70 will be presented to the new term of the Madison county grand jury which convenes on Jan. 24.

The defendants are Vernon E. Clark, 38, of East Alton, and Col. Evans, 34, of St. Louis, both of whom are charged with driving on the wrong side of the highway.

Clark's auto collided with another last Aug. 14 driven by Isaac C. Chamberlain Jr., 30, of Waco, Tex. Chamberlain, his wife, Virginia, 28, a son, Isaac, eight, and a daughter, Blenda Ann, 2½, were killed. The accident occurred just north of Collinsville.

On Nov. 26, Evans' auto collided with one driven by Allen Kleinschmidt, 19, of Kirkwood, Mo., in which a passenger, Miss Frances Jean Lucas, 20, of Collinsville, was killed about a half-mile east of Route 111.

The current session of the grand jury was recalled Wednesday to consider evidence on about 15 criminal cases and may present its report on Monday.

Rose Hash, Mrs. Ethel Corrie and Mrs. Martha Wortham. The February meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Corrie, 807 Greenwood street, Madison.

Seek $50-Bill Passer

Venice police Wednesday morning sought a man who attempted to cash a $50 bill at the Tri-City Grocery store in Venice. An official of the store reported that he did not cash the bill, which was offered for a small purchase. He reported the incident to police, he said, because his office had warned him that counterfeit $50 bills are in circulation. The report to police did not specify that the bill offered by the man was counterfeit.

WEST PONTON ROAD, looking west from the railroad crossing, which the city hopes to widen and pave at the same time the state highway department improves Nameoki road. The city plans to match the pavement of the roadway to the west which was improved by the county with a four-lane concrete pavement.

City Ready to Get Tracts for W. Pontoon Rd. Widening

An ordinance giving the city the right of eminent domain to secure right-of-way for the proposed widening and paving of West Pontoon road was approved Monday night by Granite City council members.

Mayor Partney said he was hopeful the 19 tracts needed could be secured in time for the improvement project bid call to be included in the Jan. 38 call.

The state highway department will improve the small portion of West Pontoon road between Nameoki road and the railroad tracks, but it will be the city's responsibility to carry out the remainder of the improvement to Edwardsville road also are city limits—where the county's four-lane, concrete roadway starts.

The roadway is a heavily-used connecting link between Nameoki road and Route 3, and the work is to be financed with the city's motor fuel tax funds.

Konzen prepared the ordinance, and in another communication to the council advised the members that the state has supplied the city with data needed for 111 of the 112 right-of-way and easement appraisals for the section of Nameoki road.

The assistant city attorney reported he has forwarded the state-supplied information on the 111 tracts to Andrew Gasparovic, III, who was hired as appraiser. The state has appropriated $70,000 for the right-of-way acquisition this year.

The state is to seek bids this month for the widening and improvement of Nameoki road from Madison avenue north to the city limits, and funds for the improvement south of Madison avenue to Edwardsville road also are included in this year's state budget.

Another improvement project scheduled for this year is the widening and improvement of Maryville road from Pontoon road to the north city limits.

Konzen is to start this week on right-of-way acquisition which is the city's responsibility.

This project is to be carried out in a joint arrangement with the county highway department within the city limits.

All work is to be done with motor fuel tax funds.

St. Louis Ex-Con Shot in Neck Tells Conflicting Tales

A St. Louis ex-convict who was shot in the back of the neck early Tuesday, apparently in the Granite City rural area, was being held for investigation at Homer G. Phillips Hospital, St. Louis.

He is Leroy Walker, 25, who told conflicting stories to authorities and said he did not wish to press charges. He refused to name his assailant.

According to a report made to the county sheriff's office at 3:45 a.m., Walker approached the Richard's Skelly Highway service station west of Mitchell at Byrd and Route 3, told Robert Johnnie, the attendant, that he had been shot and asked him to call a taxi.

Walker took a Granite City cab to Wood River and then hired another cab to take him across the Chain of Rocks bridge to St. Louis where the taxi was halted by district police. St. Louis police took him to the hospital where he was in satisfactory condition.

"Gave Phony Story"
Capt. Louis Bowman, St. Louis county chief investigator who questioned Walker Tuesday at the hospital, claims Walker "gave a phony story" and that he leaves the shooting occurred in an area near Granite City which is frequented by hoodlums.

Bowman said Walker told him he was drinking in a St. Louis bar and left about 1:30 a.m. when he met two white males and a woman on the sidewalk. They asked Walker to accompany them to Illinois to see a friend, that after driving for awhile, the driver suddenly stopped in a wooded area, and without provocation, turned and shot him in the left side of the neck. The slug came out through his back.

Walker told Bowman that he forced the car open, staggered to the ground and then fled into the woods while the driver fired four more shots at him, missing.

Says Roamed Woods
He said he then roamed the woods for about two hours and then made it to the highway where he hitched a ride to the service station.

Walker claimed that the Granite City taxicab which was summoned broke down and he caught another cab in Wood River to go to a St. Louis hospital for treatment. He first claimed that he ran to Wood River from the shooting scene.

Pi Myers, driver of the Granite City cab, told authorities that there was no breakdown and that he was instructed to stop in Wood River.

Meanwhile, Johnnie, the service station attendant, notified Granite City and county authorities, and then Wood River, state and St. Louis police were alerted after Myers filed a report that his passenger was bleeding.

Bowman said he believes Walker had a disagreement with the hoodlums.

St. Louis police said Walker has a record of arrests, including burglary. He was sentenced to two years in prison in 1962 for burglary and stealing.

County May Borrow St. Clair Facilities

Madison county will be forced to use the St. Clair county juvenile detention home if space is available to comply with new state laws regarding juveniles, James J. Reidelberger, chief probation and juvenile officer, announced this week.

Reidelberger said that one part of the law requires that minors in temporary custody who do not need physical restriction must be placed with a foster home or other shelter facility designated by the court.

As Madison county has no shelter facility or detention home of its own, it will use the St. Clair county home and pay that county accordingly, he added.

Another part of the laws requires that adult prisoners also be expected to cause difficulty and the county jail and other jails in the county are inadequate to do so.

Three Fires — No Damage

Granite City firemen answered three calls to fires Tuesday, none of which resulted in damage.

The first was at 11:40 p.m. to the home of Clarence Butler, 1721 Moro avenue, where there was a defective furnace blower motor; the second at 2:15 p.m. at the home of Naomi Randolph, 1864 Joy avenue, where burning rubbish ignited lumber; and the third was at 9:30 p.m. in the 1800 block of Cleveland where trash was burning in the alley.

Benton Street Stop Sign Hangs in Balance

Two of three moves by Third Ward Alderman Poulos to override recommendations by the city's traffic engineer, failed to gain sufficient support of the Granite City council Monday night, but approval was given for a two-hour parking restriction along the east side of the 2100 block of Adams street.

While the re-installation of a stop sign on Benton street at 22nd street did not get two-thirds approval of the council for immediate adoption, the ordinance was placed on first reading, and Poulos is virtually assured of sufficient "aldermanic courtesy" to get it approved at the Jan. 17 session.

Turned down flatly by the council was his request for an individual two-hour parking restriction in front of 1725 State street.

Danger From Speeding
Arguing for the stop sign, Poulos said motorists have been speeding along Benton street at that point where a number of school children cross. He said four speeders were arrested there last week when police set up a radar speed timing unit.

Alderman Sternberg said patrolled and marked school crossings for Emerson school are located at 20th street and at 21st street, and that it was unlikely that school children should be crossing there. He was told that youngsters going to St. Joseph's parochial school and Central junior high school cross Benton street there.

Sternberg said he hated to see the return of the use of aldermanic courtesy to get stop signs. "We're not elected as experts in any one particular field, and we need to take the advice of experts."

The alderman went on to say that the city had over the years developed a "lousy" system of surplus stop signs that were put up purely through "aldermanic courtesy," and that the surplus stop sign ordinance to be placed and eliminated through the conscientious efforts of the citizens' Traffic Study Commission.

Walker took a Granite City cab to Wood River and then hired another cab to take him across the Chain of Rocks bridge to St. Louis where the taxi was halted by district police. St. Louis police took him to the hospital where he was in satisfactory condition.

Bowman said Walker told him he was drinking in a St. Louis bar and left about 1:30 a.m. when he met two white males and a woman on the sidewalk. Walker claimed that the Granite City taxicab which was summoned broke down and he caught another cab in Wood River to go to a St. Louis hospital for treatment. He first claimed that he ran to Wood River from the shooting scene.

Meanwhile, Johnnie, the service station attendant, notified Granite City and county authorities, and then Wood River, state and St. Louis police were alerted after Myers filed a report that his passenger was bleeding.

Bowman said he believes Walker had a disagreement with the hoodlums.

Experts on Commission
"We have experts on the commission, and I ask the council to give full consideration before it negates the commission's action. In restoring this stop sign, we on the council would be saying to the commission, 'if you don't grant our wishes, we'll jam it down your throats.'"

Sternberg was taken to task by Alderman Nomi, who commented, "You'll never get aldermanic courtesy. And as for the commission, I know many of the members personally, and I know they're not traffic experts."

"They never have served as an alderman and they don't know the wards as the aldermen do. They don't know the ward conditions, and the traffic engineer was not born here and never lived here. We know our wards, and these men are no more experts than the two men of the Third Ward."

The other Third Ward Alderman, Clyde Boyd, said he lives near the intersection and knows the condition of fast traffic and the dangers to school children since the stop sign was taken there last week when police set up a radar speed timing unit.

No Accidents
Alderman Samuel E. Whitmer said he had gone through traffic reports at the police station and failed to find any traffic accidents occurring at the intersection in the several months the stop sign has been down.

The votes for the stop sign were by Nomi, Basarich, Bartosik, Johnson, Boyd, Dallas, Robertson, Poulos and Green. The aldermen supporting the Traffic Commission's recommendation against replacement were Rutledge, Whitmer, Moerlein, Sternberg, Thompson, Fry and Parmley.

With suspension of rules failing to gain sufficient support, Alderman Nomi, chairman of the Ordinance committee, called for the stop sign ordinance to be placed on first reading. The approval was given by a 10-to-6 vote, with Parmley voting the 10th "aye."

Restricted Parking Debate
Poulos' request for a two-hour parking restriction in front of one home at 1725 State street, requested by the individual property owner, also brought forth a debate before it was rejected.

Alderman Moerlein, whose First Ward is across the street, said a constituent there told him that if a two-hour zone is established at 1725 State street, he wants one in front of his home.

"It would be the same thing all along the block and then all over town," Moerlein pointed out. "Two-hour parking won't solve a personal grievance, and if the alderman would study the situation there he would find there is no problem."

Moerlein added that he had been by the location several times in one day and only once did he find a car parked in the area specified for two-hour restriction. "And that was an insurance man who was in that house and left as I was going by," he added.

Poulos asked, "How did the two-hour zones get all over town if they were handled by individual requests?"

"Impossible to Police"
Dallas replied that many such individual requests have been turned down, and that because of the numerous parking zones, it is impossible for police to enforce them all.

The vote on the 50-foot, two-hour zone was 6-to-10. Favoring it were Nomi, Basarich, Boyd, Robertson, Poulos and Green. Opposed were Rutledge, Whitmer, Bartosik, Johnson, Dallas, Moerlein, Sternberg, Thompson, Fry and Parmley.

Man Fined $120, Was Disarmed in Luna Cafe

Donald Gene Janis, 32, of St. Louis, was fined $100 plus $20 costs Tuesday by Magistrate Joseph Keffeler at Edwardsville on charge of unlawful use of weapons.

He was arrested by sheriff's deputies at 12:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Luna Cafe, Mitchell, where he was disarmed of an eight-shot .22 caliber revolver by Herbert H. Kelly of Granite City, the bartender.

Day told deputies he took the .22 from Janis' jacket after he entered the tavern with his wife and yelled: "He's got a gun."

Now EIU Building to Be Ready by Autumn
Construction of Eastern Illinois University's new telephone and security building is scheduled for operation by fall. It will house its new central telephone system and the security and traffic personnel.

The new central exchange system will more than triple the number of telephones presently available for the university and provide for unlimited growth. The campus now is serviced by 11 telephones under several primary branch exchange systems. Temporary rooms will have individual phones.

Released from Sanatorium
Joseph Robbers, 2418 Benton street, was released Tuesday from the Madison County Tuberculosis Sanatorium in Edwardsville where he was a patient for six months while undergoing treatment.

The restriction will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily except Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. In other action, the council approved a recommendation by the Traffic Study Commission for the right-of-way signs to be located at the 17th street and Edison avenue intersection.

ORDINANCE No. 2286

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTION 7 OF ORDINANCE NO. 2281 CREATING CERTAIN NON-MOVING VIOLATIONS FOR MOTOR VEHICLES AND PROVIDING THE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS THEREOF.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL of the City of Granite City, Illinois:

SECTION 1: That Section 7 of Ordinance No. 2281 of the City of Granite City, Illinois, is hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be fined not less than Three Dollars ($3.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for each offense.

(b) Any person who violates any section of this Ordinance may settle a claim with the City for a penalty by presenting the ticket indicating such violation at the police station and paying the sum of Three Dollars ($3.00). If this is done within twenty-four hours, and Five Dollars ($5.00) if done after twenty-four (24) hours of said violation.

(c) If, within ten (10) days of the time the alleged offense was committed, the violator does not appear in response to a traffic citation affixed to the motor vehicle found parked in violation of this Ordinance, the municipality may send a letter to the owner of said motor vehicle, warning him that in the event such letter is disregarded for a period of five (5) days, a warrant of arrest will be issued.

(d) In the event any person fails to comply with a traffic citation given to such person, or attached to a vehicle parked in violation of this Ordinance, the Chief of Police may secure and issue a warrant for his arrest.

SECTION 2: The penalty clause of all ordinances, dealing with non-moving violations in conflict herewith is hereby repealed, and the penalties set forth in this Ordinance are substituted therefor.

SECTION 3: This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication as approved by law.

PASSED BY THE CITY COUNCIL of the City of Granite City, Illinois, this 27th day of December, A.D., 1965.

APPROVED BY THE Mayor of the City of Granite City, Illinois, this 28th day of December, A.D., 1965.

What an Inventory Hangover!

THIS IS WHAT THE FURNITURE BUYER AT FREDMAN BROS. LOOKS LIKE THESE DAYS!

Our Furniture Buyers (?) bought so many Dogs last year he's beginning to look like one. Our only hope is that folks will ask us, "How Much is That Doggie In The Window?" because we're cutting the prices so low that these Dogs will look like Dolls to anyone interested in saving some extra money. So come in tonight or tomorrow and look around. Our Boners may be the best buys you'll make this year.

THE AFTER-CHRISTMAS CLEAN-UP IS OUR NEW YEAR'S HEADACHE!

1965 was a great year for us and we sincerely thank all our customers for making it so. But this is another year and another season! Christmas was mighty hectic and we have the odds and ends, scratched and dented pieces, discontinued numbers and floor samples to prove it. But most of all we have some items for which we just couldn't seem to find a customer. These are the Dogs our buyers thought were going to go like hot cakes but have ended up going like hot coals. So our first order of business for this new year is to clean house! We have pruned our tags up to 50% off last year's prices so it's quite a savings event for the bargain hunters. Naturally, you'll get best selections if you come early. Our doors are open 'til 8:30 p.m. tonight and open tomorrow at 9 a.m. All items listed are subject to prior sale!

Furniture Savings of 10% to 50%!

Dallas E. Wood, 47, Dies at Litchfield

Dallas Eugene Wood, 47, of Bend, Ill., a former resident of the Quad-Cities, died at 5:30 a.m. today, in a Litchfield, Ill., hospital, following an apparent heart attack. He had been under medical care with a heart ailment for the past five years.

A native of Panama, Ill., Mr. Wood lived in Granite City and Venice for almost 20 years, leaving the area several years ago. He had retired five years ago from the Olin Corp., East Alton, where he was employed as an electrician. He was a member of the Bend Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Esther (Graf) Wood, one daughter, Miss Judy Wood, who resides at home; and four sisters, Mrs. Marion (Dorothy) Lomberg, of Madison, Mrs. Adolf (Leora) Benoit, Collinsville, Mo., Helen Stone, Philadelphia, Pa., and Mrs. Bernard (Margaret) McCord, Syracuse, N. Y. Mr. Wood was preceded in death by his parents, Lee Roy and Nora Wood of Venice.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete at a Bend funeral home.

Mrs. Rapp Hospitalized

Mrs. William Rapp, 1729 Venice avenue, entered Jewish Hospital, St. Louis, Tuesday to undergo treatment for thrombophlebitis. She will be hospitalized for about two weeks.

Heart Fund Group Opens Campaign in Quad-Cities

The formal opening of the 1966 Heart Fund campaign for the Quad-Cities was held last night at a dinner meeting at the Rose Bowl restaurant presided over by Kenneth Grubb of Alton, a county Heart Fund official.

A speaker at the meeting was

Teachers Sought for Overseas U. S. Schools

Qualified area residents interested in teaching positions overseas with the Department of Defense dependents schools system are requested to contact the overseas recruiter in the civilian personnel office at Scott Air Force Base.

About 200 elementary and secondary teachers, librarians, counselors, and teachers of the physically handicapped, mentally retarded and of remedial reading are needed for the 1966-67 school year. The basic salary is $4835, and employees will receive free government quarters if available or a housing allowance. The government will pay transportation and enroute expenses.

Dr. B. B. Berman, local pediatrician and a member of the state Heart Association. He told of the rheumatic heart programs being conducted at schools in the state with funds provided by the Heart Association.

Mrs. Margaret Roberts, local Heart Fund chairman, announced the names of committee chairmen for the fund-raising drive.

Pete Schermer, retired businessman, will be in charge of special gifts, business and in-plant solicitations; James Kenney, manager of Public Loan Co., will be chairman of Heart Sunday on Feb. 20; Burl Schmisser, operator of the National School of Music, and Mrs. Helen Pempel, housewife, will be special events co-chairmen; Magistrate Merlin Hiscott will be in charge of clubs and organizations; Lucy Randolph, will be an advisor; and the Roca Boys' Club, Earl Parsons, advisor, will distribute Heart Fund charters.

Previously announced were the appointments of Edwin Yackel, service station operator as vice-chairman of the campaign; John Lerch of the Granite City Army Depot will be the drive treasurer, and Miss Hilda Schroeder of Holiday Service, is the publicity chairman.

Mrs. Roberts also announced that J. W. Senoff of Granite City Realty Co. has offered the use of his offices as campaign headquarters.

Man Bitten by Dog

James Cotton, 27, of 1227 Calhoun street, Venice, was bitten on the right leg Wednesday afternoon by a dog owned by William Pearson, 302 Selb street, Venice police cited Pearson to appear in magistrate's court at Madison next Wednesday on a charge of harboring a dangerous dog and permitting it to run loose. The dog was ordered confined for ten days for observation.

Travelers Abroad to Hear Col. Schweizer

Col. Charles B. Schweizer, commanding officer of the Granite City Army Depot and a world traveler, will be the speaker at the January meeting of Travelers Abroad at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Jan. 10, at the Prather junior high school library.

Col. Schweizer's talk, which will include photographic slides, deal with the country of origin of Quad-City foreign travelers. Officers are to be elected.

Boy, 14, Kills Deer

Bob Jones, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Jones, is receiving congratulations this week on an 11-point buck shot Jan. 1 on the Crab Orchard Farms. The deer, young Jones' first, weighed 177 pounds field-dressed. He lives at 1369 West Pontoon road with his parents.

Five Persons Hurt In Traffic Mishaps In Area This Week

Five persons were injured in four of 12 accidents which occurred this week on area streets and highways.

Two women, passengers in an auto driven by Robert Slayton, 2127 Illinois avenue, were injured when the car was struck in the rear by a car driven by Carl Jackson, 2230 Benton street, at 12:20 a.m. Wednesday as Slayton was attempting to turn right off of Namek road onto Victory drive.

Taken to St. Elizabeth hospital were Mrs. Shelby Slayton, 23, of 2127 Illinois avenue, who was admitted with pains to her left wrist, and Mrs. Della Copeland, 19, of 2238 Edison avenue, who had back pains and was advised of outpatient treatment either at the Granite City Army Depot dispensary or Scott Air Force Base Hospital. Jackson was charged with following too closely and was summoned for a hearing by Jan. 19.

Wrecker Hits Auto
Shelby W. Siebert, 28, of 2415 Lincoln avenue, was treated for a pain in the right elbow at St. Elizabeth Hospital after his auto was struck in the right side by a wrecker truck driven by Charles Thompson, Florissant, Mo., at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at 18th street and Grand avenue.

Thompson claimed a parked truck prevented his seeing a stop sign, causing the collision. Siebert was taken to the hospital in a police car and his station wagon was moved to a garage.

Mert Howard, 41, of 2232 Cardinal avenue, suffered a knee injury when his auto was involved in a highway accident at an intersection while avoiding another accident near Route 159, Collinsville, early Monday.

When the knee became troublesome later at work, he went to St. Elizabeth Hospital for x-rays and was released Monday.

Bi-State Routing
Changed in Area
Rescheduling of four rush-hour bus routes from the Alton-Wood River area for St. Louis was announced Wednesday by the Bi-State Transit System as the result of requests made by area commuters at a meeting of the Wood River city council last month.

The new schedule, effective 5:40, 6:20 and 7:30 a.m. trips leaving Alton for St. Louis via Wood River will travel by Route 111 instead of through Mitchell, Granite City and Madison. The 5:20 p.m. return trip via route 111 will leave 15 minutes earlier at 5:15 p.m. The new schedule becomes effective Monday.

Bu patrons had protested the previous route on grounds it was longer and they consistently were late for work. One woman told the Wood River Council in the December meeting that the route through Mitchell and Granite City took an hour for the 24-mile trip, added 21 stop signs and crossed five additional railroad tracks. Bi-State also conducted a postcard survey which indicated the route change was justified.

A trip leaving Wood River for Alton at 7:10 a.m. will be added to serve those wishing to reach Alton for the 8 a.m. shift. An evening trip leaving Alton at 4:45 p.m. also will be added to serve the same group on the return trip.

Rotary Smorgasbord In Madison Feb. 20

Plans to resume annual benefit smorgasbords were made by Madison Rotarians yesterday during their weekly luncheon meeting.

The 1966 smorgasbord was set for 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 20, at the Madison memorial recreation center. Seventh street and Lee avenue. Funds are used by the club to finance its charitable activities.

President Tony Zedolek has a suggested Leo Schermer to continue as smorgasbord chairman. Possibility of conducting a club fund-raising contest was discussed, and Madison will enter a team in a Feb. 13 district Rotary bowling tournament.

Pleads Not Guilty to DWI

Kenneth R. Archer, 2843 Myrtle avenue, was arrested at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday at 20th street and Park avenue on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He pleaded innocent in magistrate's court and was released on $200 cash bail. A companion, Martha Dixon, 41, of 2121 Washington avenue, pleaded not guilty to intoxication and cash bail was set at $25.

Venice Park Board Approves Tax Loan

An ordinance for issuance of $10,000 worth of anticipation warrants was approved by the Venice Park board in its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night. The board also approved routine claims and payroll vouchers and heard a report by Harry Hartman, board attorney, on the potentiality of federal funds for construction of an administration office building.

Plan to build an office building

A plan to build an office building has been discussed for several years. The appropriation and tax levy for the current year contains a $700 reserve item for a building fund for the first time as a result of approval of a referendum proposal, increasing the general fund tax rate to a maximum of 15 cents last year. The district now has an 11-cent general fund rate.

Hartman was instructed to investigate further into the possibility of obtaining federal money to aid in construction of an office building.

Couple Arrested at Home

Carl Snyder, 21, and Diane Snyder, 20, both of 2119 Delmar avenue, each were charged with disorderly conduct and profanity after they were arrested at home at 7:20 p.m. Wednesday. They were released on $50 cash bail pending hearings on Jan. 15.

Madison Man Proud of His 42-Year-Old Maxwell Automobile

Forty-two years ago, a sleek, four cylinder Maxwell touring car sat on a dealer's showroom floor in Belleville.

Today, the same car sits in the garage of Gene Wilson, 1835 Market street, Madison.

"Why that old car was once driven by Jack Benny in a War Bond parade in St. Louis during the second world war," Wilson related.

The previous owner, a Mr. Ranck of Belleville, bought the car when it was a year old, and owned it for 41 years before selling it to Wilson.

One day, Jack Benny's manager went to a junkyard in Belleville to find a Maxwell, and the man at the junkyard told him about the one Ranck owned. They borrowed it, and Benny drove it the next day," Wilson said.

Benny Might Buy It

"When he was finished driving it, Benny said in passing, 'Some day I'm going to come back here and buy that old car,'" Wilson said.

But to this day, neither money or Benny have separated Wilson and the Maxwell.

"As far as I can figure it, the car has a little more than 79,000 miles on it, and has not had any major motor or transmission work on it," Wilson said.

"We have a bail in that old car. We even drive it to church during the summertime," Wilson said.

"Modern" Fixtures

Some modern features, as 42 years ago, on the car are wooden steering wheel, 31x4 inch wheels, and controls for spark and gasoline.

Wilson bought the car last summer and has "tinkered" with it since.

Speedometer Top Is 75

Although the speedometer goes up to a "fantastic" 75 miles per hour, Wilson claims that he has never driven it more than 30 to 35 miles an hour.

The former owner of several Model A's, Wilson hopes to sell the Maxwell to Jack Benny.

Dog With Local License Found in Eminence, Mo.

A missing dog with Granite City No. 8 on his collar and Madison County No. 234 on his tag is being cared for in Eminence, Mo., by Ethel Rowlett.

Post Office Box 21, Eminence, the Press-Record learned this week.

In a letter addressed generally to Granite City, she said the young, large police dog or German shepherd came to her home Nov. 20. He acts as much as any dog.

She mentioned the possibility that the collar and tag may have been taken from another dog, if she is unable to locate the owner, she may sell the pet, she concluded.

Both union and company officials are being waiting further action by conciliators of the U. S. Mediation Service in St. Louis which has been handling arrangements for all negotiation sessions since a month after the strike began.

Striking employees, members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union, Local 7-663, voted to reject a company offer on Dec. 18. No further contract talks have been held since that time.

Bernard O'Keefe, St. Louis conciliator, said earlier in the week that arrangements are being considered for further meetings. He could not be reached today.

Guidelpost

Success comes to the man who early in life learns to gauge the future by what has happened in the past.

Registration for the winter adult education term was extended today through Friday, Jan. 14.

Vocational courses remain in all courses, particularly an algebra-geometry review and "new mathematics for parents."

Hours at Room 147, Granite City high school, will be 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. tomorrow and Jan. 14 and 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Jan. 10, 11, 12 and 13. The new term will begin Monday, Jan. 10.

There are driver training openings for Thursday, Friday and Saturday instruction. The two scheduled driving classes are Jan. 14 but a 4 p.m.-to-7 p.m. class also has been created.

Thiefts

a suede jacket, a pair of shoes, four sweaters, a bag of underclothing and a new electric razor.

John Von Nida, 50 Cambridge drive, reported that a 1955 green auto was stolen from the 1900 block of Adams street between 7 and 9 p.m. Wednesday.

He said he had $400 to $500 worth of tools in the back seat. Joseph Gruber, 1893 Spruce street, reported that his 1962 four-door brown and white auto was stolen from the front of the Lincoln Plaza Community Center where it was parked between 6:45 and 8 p.m. Tuesday. It was found at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday and was towed to a garage.

Shoplifters Escape

Three women shoppers got away with clothing valued at $49 at the Tops & Bottoms shop, 1915 State street, it was reported at 4:10 p.m. Monday.

The items included a white sweater valued at $7, a white pair of slacks at $9, three pairs of stretch pants, including two at $6 and one at $9 and three knit blouses at $4 each.

All clothing and a large amount of toys and kitchen utensils were stolen in a burglary at the home of James Patton, 2807 Denver street, last Dec. 28, he reported at 4 p.m. Monday. Twelve windows and a door glass were broken. A vandalism report on the breakage was filed at the time.

Venice Man Robbed

Clifford Stewart, 1036 Third street, Venice, reported to police Wednesday afternoon that he was robbed of two valuable watches, a $50 money order and an undetermined amount of cash on the night of Dec. 27. He said the items were taken by a woman and a man whom he met in a Venice tavern, and with whom he left the place.

He said he did not remember how the items were taken from him. He said he had not reported the theft sooner because a bartender at the tavern had promised to get the stolen articles back for him.

SIU-SW Providing Buses between Campus, 2 Centers

Bus service to the new South-Western Campus of Southern Illinois University from the Alton and East St. Louis teaching centers will be continued through the current school year, despite an earlier announcement to the contrary, the university said today.

Previously, the daily schedule of runs was provided by Bi-State Transit System, but according to a prior understanding between the carrier and SIU-SW campus, this service was halted at the end of the last quarter because it proved economically unfeasible.

However, during the Christmas vacation university officials decided that bus service would be necessary since science laboratories at the new campus are not yet ready and students will still have to commute to Alton or East St. Louis for science courses.

The new service will be provided temporarily by Vandavia Lines until bids from other interested carriers can be received on Jan. 11.

The schedule now calls for a bus to leave Alton center each day at 6:45 and 9:50 a.m. and 1 and 4:10 p.m., arriving at the new campus site at 7:25 and 10:30 a.m. and 1:40 and 4:50 p.m.

The same bus will leave East St. Louis at 8:20 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. and 2:35 p.m., arriving at the new campus at 8:50, 11:50 a.m. and 3:10 p.m. The last bus to Alton each afternoon will leave the new campus at 3:20 then

MIKE, ROBERT AND HARRY ANDERSON OF FAIRMONT CITY LEFT

Sunday after spending four days visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Anderson, 604 Washington avenue.

RESUMES STUDIES

Mr. and Mrs. James Daniels and children, Jimmy, Mary Ann and Catherine Marie, of Springfield, Ill., were guests over the holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Daniels and daughters, Jeannie and Pat, 532 Washington avenue.

Jeannie Daniels left Monday to return to Sacred Heart Academy, Springfield, to resume her studies.

CHRISTENING, BIRTHDAY OBSERVED AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Foote Jr., 112 Granville street, entertained Sunday with a buffet dinner following the Christening of their 11-week-old son, Scott Charles, during the morning work service at St. Peter's Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Rev. Robert J. Baumann officiated. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. William Coyle of Granite City.

The seventh birthday of their son, Richard Jr., also was celebrated and both holidays were presented with gifts. Floral arrangements of spider mums were used as decorations in the home.

Other guests were the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Foote of Venice, the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ousley Jr. of Granite City, the children's grandfather, mother, Mrs. Ida Peach, and Miss Diana Ousley, Mrs. La Verne Orasco and children, Patrick, Lori and Beth, Mrs. Bernice Fredrick and daughter, Marilyn, Pandy Pierce and Miss Cindy Coyle, all of Granite City; Mike Dillon and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McKenna and daughter.

WANT ADS DO THE JOB!

Return for the last run to East St. Louis at 5 p.m.

There will be no stops between the two points of origin and the new campus as before, but rides will now be free to students.

Cindy, all of Madison; Mrs. Anna Norton of Pearl, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. James Clark of Pittsfield, Ill.; and Mrs. Elizabeth Gipsen, Mrs. Shirley Foote and Miss Dotie Foote, all of Venice.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Buchta and children, Lois, Ann and Bruce, of Carpenter, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Grady Krause and children, Mark, Kevin and Larry, of Granite City were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Krause, 1030 Third street.

SENIOR CITIZENS ELECTION JAN. 25

Venice Senior Citizens held their weekly meeting Tuesday morning at the Venice city hall clubroom, with 18 members present. Mrs. Anna Brennan and William Brennan, both of Madison, and Mrs. Myrtle Fields of Venice were welcomed as new members.

Cheer cards were signed for Mrs. Margaret Lee, Mrs. Nadine Meehan, Mrs. C. C. Dean and Mrs. Marie Mandi. Dan McGee, president, invited the group to attend the Venice Homecoming and Memorial Association dinner Jan. 19 at the St. Mark's Church basement. Reservations must be made.

Mrs. Ann Hardon, Mrs. Audress Brown and Mrs. Emily Adams will serve as a nominating committee for new officers. The election of officers will be held at the Jan. 25 meeting.

REBEKAHS TO INSTALL

Rebekah Lodge 570 held a brief business meeting Monday evening at the Odd Fellows hall, with the noble grand, Mrs. Ethel Dumavant, in charge. Various reports were given.

New officers to be installed Jan. 17 are Mrs. Edith Carpenter, noble grand; Mrs. Marie Zeigler, vice-grand; Miss Luella McCoid, recording secretary; Mrs. Magdalene Smith, financial secretary; and Mrs. Marjorie Purnell, treasurer. The Jan. 17 meeting will be closed to the public.

Richard Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Patterson, 1018 Second street, left Monday to resume his studies at the University of Illinois, Champaign.

1966 Highway Program

The 1966 Primary Highway Improvement Program will provide for right-of-way acquisition and construction projects costing an estimated $217,500,000, according to an announcement made by Gov. Otto Kerner.

Of the total amount available, $147,200,000 is earmarked for work on interstate highways and $70,300,000 for noninterstate highways. Right of way costs are expected to total about one-sixth of the program.

The state will provide $41,400,000 of the total available, local sources will provide $17,000,000, federal funds will provide $129,100,000 of which $132,500,000 must be used on interstate highways and $26,600,000 on noninterstate routes.

The 1966 highway program provides for the continued construction of interstate highways as rapidly as federal funds permit. Eight lettings are scheduled for 1966, the first one in Springfield on January 28.

During 1966 it is anticipated Illinois will be apportioned $6,000,000 in federal funds for highway beautification. Locations where these funds can most appropriately be utilized are now under study. Projects to be undertaken will consist of landscaping primary highways, rest areas on primary highways and procurement of scenic easements.

Medicare Agreement
Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, state public health director, has announced that he has received the official agreement between the U. S. Department of Public Health authorizing the department to assume its responsibilities under provisions of the recent Social Security amendments, commonly referred to as "Medicare."

Department representatives will contact hospitals, nursing homes, home health agencies and heads of other qualified services to explain how they may participate in Medicare. The federal government will reimburse the state for the proportionate cost incurred in operating the program.

Fishing Questionnaire
About 20,000 licensed fishermen will receive a questionnaire during the first week in January, William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, has announced.

Purpose of the questionnaire is to determine the needs and desires of fishermen in Illinois and to obtain information that will help in establishing goals for the fisheries management program. The questions will concern fishing activities in 1965 and are so worried that they can be answered easily and quickly.

Marriage Statistics
The State of Illinois is now included in the "National Marriage Registration Area" due to the excellence and completeness of its registration records.

Much of the credit for this is due to the cooperation of county clerks. Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, state public health director, said. The test involved checking with all county clerks in the state for the number of licenses issued in 1964 and how well the records were completed, then comparing the returns with marriage records filed in the state Bureau of Statistics. Illinois' registration is 98 per cent complete, which is considered high.

Data such as this is used in health, social welfare, demography and other fields of study.

Dental Education
In 1965 Illinois became the first state to appoint a coordinator of continuing education for dentistry, in carrying out the program, the Division of Dental hygiene, aided by a federal grant, embarked on a program to bring postgraduate education to dentists rather than have him travel to educational centers.

The Department of Public Health is furthering the role of the practicing dentist in the early detection of oral cancer and has stepped up its patient education through dentists in the state. Last year 600 dentists received from oral cancer in the United States, 443 in Illinois.

About six million persons in the state are now drinking water containing sufficient fluorides to receive dental benefit as a result of the department's promotion of fluoridation of public water supplies.

Dr. SIMS says SAFEGUARD YOUR HEALTH

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

BEWARE OF TINGLING SENSATION WHEN COLD
Brisk weather may be fine for skiing and sledding, but it also may pose the threat of frostbite.

Most of us have experienced that common "pins and needles" sensation that accompanies exposure to cold, especially when sitting at football games played in freezing temperatures.

But if this sensation—one of the first symptoms of frostbite—remains unchecked too long your blood eventually will thicken and flow more slowly; ice crystals may actually form in your tissue, and your body functions, such as respiratory and metabolic, may slow down until they stop altogether. The result? Thromboses (clotting of blood) and possibly even death.

Even if frostbite is treated before it reaches the fatal stage, it can cause severe pain, leave you hypersensitive to cold for the rest of your life and perhaps even lead to amputations.

Frostbite, like burns, is "classified by its degree of severity."

Three Degrees
First-degree frostbite—like first-degree burns—only affects the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Second-degree frostbite—like second-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Third-degree frostbite—like third-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fourth-degree frostbite—like fourth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fifth-degree frostbite—like fifth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Sixth-degree frostbite—like sixth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Seventh-degree frostbite—like seventh-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Eighth-degree frostbite—like eighth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Ninth-degree frostbite—like ninth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Tenth-degree frostbite—like tenth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Eleventh-degree frostbite—like eleventh-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Twelfth-degree frostbite—like twelfth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Thirteenth-degree frostbite—like thirteenth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fourteenth-degree frostbite—like fourteenth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fifteenth-degree frostbite—like fifteenth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Sixteenth-degree frostbite—like sixteenth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Seventeenth-degree frostbite—like seventeenth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Eighteenth-degree frostbite—like eighteenth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Nineteenth-degree frostbite—like nineteenth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Twentieth-degree frostbite—like twentieth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Twenty-first-degree frostbite—like twenty-first-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Twenty-second-degree frostbite—like twenty-second-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Twenty-third-degree frostbite—like twenty-third-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Twenty-fourth-degree frostbite—like twenty-fourth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Twenty-fifth-degree frostbite—like twenty-fifth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Twenty-sixth-degree frostbite—like twenty-sixth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Twenty-seventh-degree frostbite—like twenty-seventh-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Twenty-eighth-degree frostbite—like twenty-eighth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Twenty-ninth-degree frostbite—like twenty-ninth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Thirtieth-degree frostbite—like thirtieth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Thirty-first-degree frostbite—like thirty-first-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Thirty-second-degree frostbite—like thirty-second-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Thirty-third-degree frostbite—like thirty-third-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Thirty-fourth-degree frostbite—like thirty-fourth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Thirty-fifth-degree frostbite—like thirty-fifth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Thirty-sixth-degree frostbite—like thirty-sixth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Thirty-seventh-degree frostbite—like thirty-seventh-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Thirty-eighth-degree frostbite—like thirty-eighth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Thirty-ninth-degree frostbite—like thirty-ninth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fortieth-degree frostbite—like fortieth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Forty-first-degree frostbite—like forty-first-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Forty-second-degree frostbite—like forty-second-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Forty-third-degree frostbite—like forty-third-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Forty-fourth-degree frostbite—like forty-fourth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Forty-fifth-degree frostbite—like forty-fifth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Forty-sixth-degree frostbite—like forty-sixth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Forty-seventh-degree frostbite—like forty-seventh-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Forty-eighth-degree frostbite—like forty-eighth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Forty-ninth-degree frostbite—like forty-ninth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fiftieth-degree frostbite—like fiftieth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fifty-first-degree frostbite—like fifty-first-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fifty-second-degree frostbite—like fifty-second-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fifty-third-degree frostbite—like fifty-third-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fifty-fourth-degree frostbite—like fifty-fourth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fifty-fifth-degree frostbite—like fifty-fifth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fifty-sixth-degree frostbite—like fifty-sixth-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. In this stage, the "pins and needles" sensation often changes to numbness, with the color of the skin changing from pink to white. Although the condition may not necessitate medical attention, frostbite should be treated immediately by thawing with warm water.

Fifty-seventh-degree frostbite—like fifty-seventh-degree burns—penetrates the skin's surface. 3 Men at Fort Massac

JOHN W. ALLEN
Southern Illinois University

One wagish schoolmate's casual remark made about another a lifetime ago has stuck in memory. This chap said, "Elmer is just an accident looking for a place to happen."

It appears that events occasionally follow the pattern suggested and look for places to happen. After that, "X" marks the spot and the event. Then its chief characters and the locality are remembered together.

In somewhat that manner three individuals and a chain of related but distinct events apparently close the same locality and have become closely connected with Massac county in southern Illinois. Neither of the events really began or ended in the locality. The activities of each principal character likewise were widely distributed. Massac county, however, is the locality where the trails crossed.

The first of the three characters was the active and successful frontier man, George Rogers Clark, son of a respectable Virginia planter. The second, James Wilkinson was the son of a well-to-do Maryland planter. He became a soldier in the Revolutionary War, and a grand master of intrigue. The third was Aaron Burr, brilliant son of a Presbyterian minister, native of New Jersey, graduate of Princeton at age 16, able soldier in the Revolution, successful attorney, astute politician, duelist, highly ambitious, and a charmer of women.

Clark Lends Luster
Of this trio it is Clark whose name lends luster to the Massac region though it definitely appears that he spent only one night in this vicinity, did not visit the fort that the British had abandoned shortly after the French had lost it to them.

Since he landed at the mouth of Massac creek, a mile up the Ohio from the deserted fort to make his entrance into the Illinois Country, romance has steadily connected him directly with it. The fort was a known landmark and hence, a good assigned starting point for the Illinois campaign of Colonel Clark and his army of a scant 200 men that won the domain of the west for the New Nation. No one questions the sincerity and unselfishness of this small band or of its leader.

General Wilkinson, the second of the three to appear in the locality, already had acquired an unenviable record. He had served as an officer in the Continental Army, sometimes, as later revealed, with little distinction. He had engaged in intrigue and was a member of the Conway Cabal, when a clandestine group of officers was formed to oust Washington from the command of the colonial forces. Self-seeking aggressive where his personal interests were a principal factor, full of intrigue, reasonably capable, deceptive, inconsiderate, and seemingly favored by fortune, Wilkinson rose in rank until he commanded the American forces in the west. In that position he was stationed for some time at Camp Wilkinsville, on the Ohio near where the town of Grand Chain now is.

$2000-a-Year Pension
Wilkinson vigorously assailed the character and reputation of those whom he opposed or feared. George Rogers Clark seemed a favorite target. He attempted and succeeded in duping the Spanish at New Orleans and made several trips there. He accepted a pension of $2000 a year and took an oath of allegiance to the Spanish monarch. He held repeated conferences with Aaron Burr at St. Louis and at Cantonment Wilkinsville.

Charged with misconduct, Wilkinson was tried by court martial and found "not guilty" on Dec. 25, 1811. In the war of 1812 he was in the 1813 expedition that failed against Montreal. In 1821 he journeyed to Mexico where he was given a land claim. Before he could comply with the requirements imposed, he died. His unidentified remains lie in a common vault beneath one of the city's churches.

The third member of the trio was Aaron Burr, the attractive grandson of the great American divine, Jonathan Edwards. A distinguished graduate of Princeton, Burr began study of theology but turned to law at 18. He entered the army when the Revolution came, and demonstrated military efficiency. He avoided membership in the Conway Cabal and resigned from the army in 1773.

Over the years he acquired a reputation for his ventures in amatory affairs, was married to Mrs. Theodosia Prevost, ten years his senior, in 1783 and settled in New York. Burr rose rapidly in the legal profession and soon came to share the best legal practice of the state with Alexander Hamilton.

Burr Enters Politics
Burr was elected to the U. S. Senate and was candidate for president during the repeated balloting of the electors in 1801. Losing to Jefferson, Burr became vice-president. He and Hamilton grew to be bitter political rivals. This rivalry resulted in Burr challenging Hamilton to a duel that resulted in the latter's death at Weehawken, N. J., on July 11, 1804, while Burr still was vice-president.

Burr fled the scene and soon became associated with General Wilkinson, then stationed at Cantonment Wilkinsville, in Massac county. They held extended conferences at the cantonment and at St. Louis. Burr was busy in some daring scheme never fully divulged but obviously designed to establish a new empire in the west.

Wilkinson extended aid to Burr, furnishing him with some men and boats for a trip down the Mississippi. When fragments of information began to be bruited about Wilkinson, apparently sensing danger to himself, turned on Burr who was arrested and charged with treason. He was tried on that charge at Richmond, Va., and acquitted.

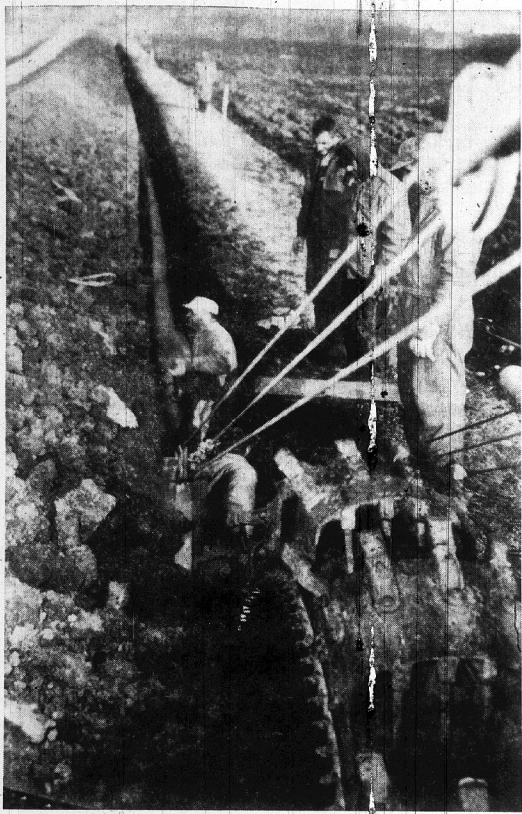

Burr remained a charmer of ladies. In July, 1833, he married a widow, Juney, who divorced him three years later, charging infidelity. The divorce decree is dated Sept. 14, 1836, the day of Burr's death.

On a visit to Massac county only one memorial is found to either of the three, that is the statue of George Rogers Clark, the only one meriting such, at Old Fort Massac, a place inseparably connected with his name though he never visited it. See Transit Gloria.

Assault Charge Filed
Harvey James Pulley, 42, of Cumberland City, Tenn., was arrested at 4:45 p.m. Monday in Fairmont City on a charge of aggravated assault. The complaint was signed by Doris Pulley. He pleaded not guilty in magistrate's court but was fined $100 for contempt of court. The fine was stayed and he was returned to jail.

Man Fined $110, Costs
Walter Adams, 22, of 3006 East 10th street, was fined $100 plus $5 costs on a disorderly conduct charge of carrying a loaded shotgun in his car and $10 and costs on a speeding charge in magistrate's court Monday. He was arrested at 4:30 a.m. the same day.

Miss Rowekamp, 76, Former Resident, Dies

Miss Amanda L. Rowekamp, 76, a former long-time resident of Granite City, died at 7:15 a.m. Tuesday, at the Helvie Nursing Home, Highland, where she had been a patient for about two years.

Born in Edwardsville in 1889, Miss Rowekamp had lived in the local community until four years ago when she moved to a nursing home in Alhambra, Ill. She was a member of St. Peter Evangelical and Reformed Church and the St. Peter's Women's Guild. Before retiring, Miss Rowekamp was employed for many years by a St. Louis shoe company.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Adolph W. (Hilda) Stier of Edwardsville, and several nieces and nephews. Miss Rowekamp was preceded in death by her parents, Carl and Sophia Rowekamp, five sisters and two brothers. Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

City to Oppose Longer Freight Trains by RRs

City cooperation was voted Monday night by Granite City council members to a proposal in response to a complaint for long traffic tieups at the railroad crossings here. The council members gave unanimous support to the proposal. The letters were sent to the G&O, New York Central, Norfolk & Western, Illinois Terminal and the Terminal Railroad Association.

Also presented to the council was a copy of letters being sent by five railroads by Mayor Partney calling for immediate repairs to all rail crossings in the city. The council members gave unanimous support to the proposal. The letters were sent to the G&O, New York Central, Norfolk & Western, Illinois Terminal and the Terminal Railroad Association.

1965 Area City Sales Taxes May Top Record by $17,000

New municipal sales tax records in 1965 seem assured for the Quad-Cities and the cities of Granite City and Madison, based on newly-released January-September statistics.

The village of Pontoon Beach already has topped its one-year record of $300 with receipts of $413 in the first nine months of 1965.

Richard Kerch Named Dron Vice-President
Richard W. Kerch, a member of the R. Dron Electrical Co. for about three years, has been appointed vice-president in charge of building construction. It was announced today by Warren L. Dron, vice-president of the firm.

Kerch, a life-long resident of Granite City, will be in charge of residential, commercial and industrial work for the company. The firm was a pioneer in street lighting and traffic signal installations throughout the central states area under the direction of Robert Dron, and became diversified under Wesley J. Lomax, president, to include all phases of electrical construction. Kerch's promotion became effective Jan. 1.

$37,147 Old Record

Nineteen sixty-four ended with record half-cent-dollar tax revenue of $37,147 in Granite City, $45,386 in Madison, $390 at Pontoon Beach and $337,147 in the entire local community.

The 1964 Venice total of $10,828 compares with a Venice record of $12,081 set in 1959. Grand total in the Quad-Cities for 1965 may exceed $555,000. Latest Illinois Revenue Department records show Granite City municipal sales taxes of $22,620 in July, $22,558 in August and $23,287 on September liability; Madison, $1100 in July, $2865 in August and $3416 in September; Pontoon Beach, $65 in July, $42 in August and $63 in September; and the Quad-Cities, $27,750 in July, $26,676 in August and $34,869 in September.

3 Persons Injured Daily

Traffic Accidents in Area Average 6.2-a-Day in 1965

Traffic crashes in the Quad-Cities continued the upward trend in 1965 along with personal injuries resulting from crashes. However, there was a decrease of one in the number of fatalities, compared to 1964 traffic statistics.

The area during 1965 averaged 6.2 crashes and 3.1 personal injuries daily. Traffic fatalities averaged nearly two each month. A compilation of traffic accidents in the area for the 12 months of the year revealed a total of 2381 accidents with 115 persons injured and 23 persons killed.

H. D. Wellman to Manage New Wisconsin Plant

Howard D. Wellman, former plant manager of the Nestle Co., Inc., in Granite City, will be manager of the largest new Nestle chocolate and cocoa plant in Burlington, Wis. He will assume his new duties this month. The new plant will begin operations in a new 250,000 square foot plant several weeks before the official opening set for Aug. 12. The plant will be the largest producer of chocolate and cocoa in the Midwest and will contain equipment for converting cocoa beans, milk, sugar and other ingredients into 25 to 30 different products.

IRS Agents to Answer Income Tax Questions

Representatives of the Internal Revenue office will be on hand in Granite City every Monday from now through April 15 to assist Quad-City taxpayers in solving 1965 income tax returns. The office on the third floor of the city hall building in Granite City will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each Monday, but no telephone calls will be received by the office.

Assistance by telephone will be available, however, from the district office in East St. Louis on Monday through Friday every week until April 15. All Federal offices will be closed on Feb. 22. Jay G. Philpott, district director of Internal Revenue for central and southern Illinois, said the instruction booklet sent out with tax returns has been designed to answer most questions about income tax forms. He also reminded employers that W-2 forms showing income and Social Security tax withheld during the year must be distributed to employees not later than Jan. 31.

The East St. Louis office, from which telephone information may be obtained, is at 420 St. Louis avenue, UPTON 5-1200.

December also had 153 persons injured in the 258 accidents, with one fatality reported. In the last four months of the year, there were 117 injury cases and four fatalities.

The number of injury cases during December was the largest of any other month during the year. Next largest number of injuries was reported in October when 156 persons were injured. The third largest number of injuries for any one month occurred in September, when there were 117 injuries, while in November there were 79 persons injured. This means that 42% of all injuries during the year were received in accidents during the last four months of the year.

All area accidents, the number of injuries and fatalities reported during 1965 were:

January—230 accidents, 89 injuries, one fatality; February—182, 59, and one; March—204, 86 and two; April—157, 85 and four; May—167, 92 and two; June—171, 98 and three; July—151, 79 and one; August—181, 82 and none; September—190, 117 and four; October—228, 136 and none; November—152, 79 and none; December—227, 153 and none.

1966 to be Significant in Law Enforcement--Hoover

The 1966 year may prove to be one of the most significant in the history of law enforcement, and it will be up to each law enforcement officer to maintain the highest traditions of the profession, according to a message issued by J. Edgar Hoover, head of the U. S. Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Hoover's message said that events of the past year give some indication of the monumental tasks confronting law enforcement officers. "While 1965 was a year of growth and progress, events further pointed up the need for law enforcement to insure up to the fullest extent of its professional concepts of its duties," Mr. Hoover said.

"The message went on: "As a guardian of justice and order, the police officer cannot dictate the terms or circumstances under which he must meet his obligations. Although law enforcement is not responsible for the social or political conditions which ferment unrest, civil disobedience and violence, the officer is not free to retreat, flinch or to hedge in the execution of his duty.

"There are those who charge 'police brutality' to detract from their misdeeds. To gain sympathy for their causes and to discredit all police officers, even so the police officer is sworn to remain courageous and to exercise self-restraint in the face of scorn and ridicule. He cannot afford to be lulled into actions which lend credence to such allegations. Public trust is built on the respect and confidence inspired by outstanding service. In discharging its responsibilities, law enforcement can follow the law, protect lives and property, to shield the weak against oppression and the peaceful against violence and disorder, and to respect the rights of all persons to liberty, equality and justice.

"In 1966, we must chart a course of action based on integrity, ability and perseverance. Each officer of the law should resolve to be a living symbol of trustworthiness and honesty. He must honor his pledge to serve mankind, to protect lives and property, to shield the weak against oppression and the peaceful against violence and disorder, and to respect the rights of all persons to liberty, equality and justice.

"Of the grave challenges facing law enforcement in the New Year lies in a strict adherence to professional and ethical standards."

State Employees' Benefit Act Outlined

A bulletin, explaining eligibility requirements under the new Illinois State Employee's Insurance Benefits Act, has been issued by Michael J. Howlett, state auditor of Public Accounts, and Leo Fitzgerald, chairman of the State Employees' Group Insurance Commission.

Under the Act, the state government, for the first time, will help pay the premiums for group hospital and surgical insurance of state employees. The state's contribution will be $3 a month for family plans and $2 for single plans.

To qualify, employees must sign up for withholding from their pay warrants of their own share of the premiums. A certification card has been prepared and will be distributed through payroll clerks of the state agencies and through the insurance companies.

Employees must certify on this card that they are qualified to receive the partial premium payment which such contributions can be made.

The employee must be employed in a position normally requiring actual performance of duty at least 900 hours a year. Temporary and part-time workers are not eligible.

Coverage for group life insurance alone does not qualify an employee for the state contribution, although the state will help pay for life insurance in combination with hospital-surgical insurance.

An employee covered in the insurance plan may elect to receive state help for only one. Where an employee and spouse are both on state payroll, only one can receive the $3 family plan contribution, although each could obtain a $2 single plan contribution under separate plans.

Under a ruling of the Internal Revenue Service, the state's contribution under the Act is not taxable for federal income tax purposes.

Three County Liquor Licenses Renewed Here

Applications for renewal of three county liquor licenses for three other areas were approved recently by the county liquor commission. Fourteen permits have been issued in the county for the new calendar year.

The local licensees are the of Johnson Lake Rod & Gun Club, Mo. Horseshoe Lake Rod & Gun Club, Mo. 900 Layton road; Patsy Ann Pierce, Lakeside Inn, Rural on the left front fender and Route One and Harrison Robinson-rumper and Quade's car was son, the Village tavern, Eagle Inn, and left door.

Eight Fined $38 After Poker Games Raided by Police

Eight persons paid fines and costs of $38.00 each after pleading guilty to charges of gambling before Magistrate Joseph Keltner Monday at Edwardsville.

They were among 10 arrested Sunday evening in the store and home of David Eugene Woods, 30, at Lake drive and Highway 162. The raid on the kitchen game was conducted by county sheriff's deputies and state police who found two games underway in a room.

Fined for keeping a gambling house were Woods and Donald Eugene Harrison, 28, of 4620 Maryville road. Others fined were:

Walter Hayes Rowland, 26, of 2117 Edison avenue; Loren Lee Madison, 31, of 3817 B street; Ponton Beach; Kenneth Leon Gass, 32, of Clayton, Mo.; John Ray Williams, 33, of 3 Kaseberg Park; and Bonnie Jean Barton, 21, and Judy Marie Aclio, 24, both of 13 Moorland drive, Mitchell.

Ahmad Abu Hamde, 33, of St. Louis, failed to appear for the hearing and forfeited $50 cash bail. Clarence Frank Barthelmy, 28, of 3853 B street, Ponton Beach, is to appear at a later date.

A woman and a 15-year-old boy also were arrested in the raid but were not charged. The boy was referred to the Illinois Youth Commission.

Sheila Barney Fraundorf said the floating game was not commercial and there were no house cuts but had been circulating among various locations and apparently was getting out of hand. Authorities were informed that the game was under way by a telephone call.

Frost on Bridge Deck Causes Another Crash

Two autos were damaged on the east approach of McKinley bridge at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday when one car skidded on frost-slick pavement and struck the other.

Police reported that a car driven by Charles G. Worster, 37, of 3256 Wabash avenue, was heading west on the bridge when it skidded into the eastbound car of John Quade, 38, Normandy.

The Worster car was damaged, Pierce, Lakeside Inn, Rural on the left front fender and Route One and Harrison Robinson-rumper and Quade's car was son, the Village tavern, Eagle Inn, and left door.

Chevrolet— America's best seller year after year... and off to a roaring head start in '66!

'66 Caprice Custom Sedan. This model was the three millionth vehicle built by Chevrolet in 1965—the first time any manufacturer has turned out this number of cars and trucks in a single year.

This enthusiastic preference for Chevrolet products may look like just another case of history repeating itself. But in the calendar year just ended—highlighted by the introduction of our new 1966 models—something happened that never happened before. More people bought Chevrolets than ever bought any other make of car before. A new record—even for Chevrolet.

This unprecedented demand gave Chevrolet a whopping sales lead of about 400,000 cars.

And as buyers continue to pour into Chevrolet showrooms in '66, they continue to show their preference for Chevrolet products over every other make of car by a wide margin. With good reason—as you'll see from the new '66 features listed at the right.

This growing success year after year just goes to show that there's really only one car people like better than a Chevrolet—and that's another new Chevrolet. Drop into your dealer's and see for yourself.

Ultra-luxurious new Caprice sedans—four new models, above and beyond anything Chevrolet has ever built. New Turbo-Jet V8's—most advanced and most talked about V8's going. Chevrolet SS 396's—two rakish, specially equipped new road machines powered by a Turbo-Jet V8. Eight new safety features, including front and rear seat belts, standard on all '66 models Chevrolet builds. Body by Fisher craftsmanship—plus many added luxuries you can order, such as automatic Comforton heating and air conditioning. Traditionally higher resale—another plus that reflects the added satisfaction you'll get from a Chevrolet right through trade-in time.

Annual Boy Scout Council Business Meeting Jan. 27

Tickets have been placed on sale at the Cahokia Mound Council service center, 1338a Niedringhaus avenue, for the annual Boy Scout council business meeting Thursday evening, Jan. 27. The dinner tickets are $2.50.

George T. Wilkins, former Illinois superintendent of public instruction, will be chairman of the meeting. All council members, executive board members, commissioners and institutional representatives are being asked to attend.

Business will include election of officers, changes in the constitution and by-laws and presentation of special awards to volunteer scouts and to institutions sponsoring scouting units.

Robertson, Davis Appointed
It was announced this week that Attorney Randall Robertson has been appointed by Council President A. P. Steinhilber as chairman of 1968 sustaining membership enrollment.

With nearly 2000 volunteer leaders and 4700 scouts, the council has set a goal of $20,000 from sustaining members. A planning session for the steering committee and district enrollment committees has been set for Jan. 12.

Steinhilber also announced that D. J. Davis, vice-president of General Steel Industries, has accepted the chairmanship of the 1968 Scouting Fair, which will be held in May.

April Appreciation Dinner
John Solenberger, executive director of the Tri-City United Fund and chairman of the council activities committee, will be chairman of the annual council appreciation dinner to be held Saturday, April 2.

Plans currently are being completed for observance of Boy Scout Week Feb. 7-13, the 50th anniversary of the founding of scouting in America. Solenberger has announced a "Breakthrough for Youth" theme.

Preceding Boy Scout Week, a "Klondike derby" is set for Jan. 22, Jan. 29 or Feb. 5 at Cahokia Mound State Park, depending on which Saturday has snow. Patrols are preparing sleds for the event and also will compete in compass and mapping, fire building, rope work and judging skills.

Social Security Exam Saturday at SIU-SW

Competitive examinations for career positions with the Social Security Administration will be held Saturday on the main Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus.

The tests are open to college seniors who will receive degrees by August, recent graduates and graduate students. Tests will run from 8:30 a.m. to noon and 1 to 2:30 p.m., and a panel interview will be held with successful candidates at 4 p.m.

About 110 appointments will be made by June in Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin.

Outlying Areas to Seek Fire Protection from Long Lake

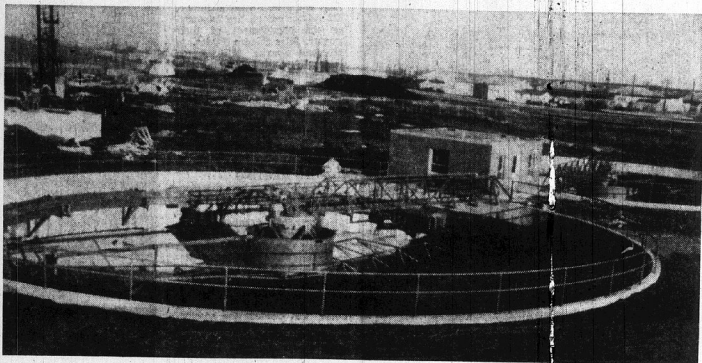

Petitions seeking extension of the boundaries of the Long Lake Fire District at Pontoon Beach to include a now unprotected area of Nameoki township are to be filed in circuit court soon, according to Gene Rotter, Nameoki township tax collector and a resident of the area.

The action grows out of recent announcement by Granite City officials that fire calls outside the city limits will not be answered because two city fire trucks are being repaired.

This left the Miracle Manor, Nameoki Acres, Bellemeor and possibly New Haven areas without protection, since fire alarms in these subdivisions previously were answered by the Granite City fire department.

Jack Harper, chief of the Long Lake Fire department, said arrangements had been made for the Long Lake department to answer all calls in this section

Construction Progressing on Sewage Treatment Plant

ONE OF FOUR primary settling tanks is shown in the foreground. Behind it is the pump house and another of the primary settling tanks, all part of Granite City's new sewage treatment plant.

Weather Most Favorable for City's Project

Construction on the new sewage treatment plant for Granite City is progressing "beautifully" according to Edward Juneau, city project engineer. The facilities are being built at the Army Depot, and the city already is placing advertisements to hire a treatment plant engineer.

"The weather has been real good, and the project is fast taking shape," Juneau commented.

The pumping station building is up, as is the bar-screen building. Both structures need interior work before they are completed. The filter building is being completed with brickwork, and the primary tank mechanisms are being completed, Juneau said.

"All indications are that the spring date for completion of the plant will be met," he added. Then the city is expected to comply with federal and state order to end its pollution of the Mississippi River.

The original bid for the project was $1,250,183.55 and to date, the amount paid to the contractor has been $978,749.54. "There have been some additional expenses met for added improvement, but they haven't amounted to much," Juneau said.

Upon completion of the project a tax of 90 cents a month will be charged to each home owner in Granite City to retire the revenue bond issue.

Woman Loses Purse

Loraine Menzies, 2401 Ohio avenue, reported at 3 p.m. Monday that her gray purse containing about $11, a driver's license and papers was lost or stolen Sunday night at an unknown location.

Until procedure for including it in the district can be completed. Approximately 350 homes are located in the area.

After the petitions are filed the court may order a public hearing on the proposed extension of boundaries. If no serious objections develop, the court may fix new boundaries for the district to include the area.

Equipment in Trunk Can Give Trouble-Free Driving

Now's the time to clean out the trunk of your automobile, the American Auto Club advises in giving tips for trouble-free winter driving.

"Take out those golf clubs, the barbecue grill, beach balls and boating equipment, and replace them with winter driving aids."

"What's in your trunk or what's not there can make the difference in whether you 'go' or 'don't go' on snow packed or icy streets."

The Auto Club suggests that trunk equipment during the winter include a supply of sand, gravel or some other type of abrasive stored in handy milk cartons. This will provide portable traction that might be needed to get going in a tight spot.

Fire Committee Studying 4 Bids For Aerial Truck

Four bids for building the city an 85-foot aerial ladder truck for the fire department were opened and read to the Granite City council Monday night by Alderman Johnson, chairman of the Fire committee.

The apparent low bid was $42,964 by Seagraves Fire Apparatus Co., Clintonville, Wisc., which also submitted a $43,337 proposal.

All bids were referred to Johnson's committee for study and recommendation. The council's next meeting will be on Jan. 20.

The other bids were—$44,703 by American LaFrance Co. of Elmira, N. Y.; $46,982 by Ward LaFrance Co. of Elmira Heights, N. Y., and $47,935 by Towers Fire Apparatus Co., Freeburg, Ill.

Purchase of the aerial ladder truck, which was preferred over the original decision for a snorkel-type truck, will be from a special $54,000 fund for fire equipment.

The fund was established through an agreement between the city and Granite City Steel Co. in which the steel mill agreed to buy the city a snorkel truck in exchange for streets and alleys in the "behind-the-mill" area where the firm is building its basic oxygen furnaces in its current multi-million dollar, three-year expansion and modernization program.

Any balance in the special fund after the purchase of an aerial ladder truck will be used to buy other equipment for the fire department.

The steel company gave the city the money for a special account when the council decided to get an aerial ladder instead of a snorkel truck.

Hideg-Mundy Nuptials Monday

Miss Judith Mundy, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mundy jr., 3104 Colgate place, and Frank Hideg, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hideg sr., 3127 Princeton drive, were married Monday morning at the St. Louis Cathedral.

The ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock by the Rev. Mendi and attendants were Miss Judy McElligott of East St. Louis, and Michael Munday, the bride's brother.

For her wedding the bride wore a white knitted wool suit and a white hat. Miss McElligott was in a gold colored suit and a brown hat and accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

All arrangements were simple, and the newlyweds left after the ceremony for Indianapolis, Ind., where Mr. Hideg attends Lincoln Chiropractic College. He is a graduate of the Madison high school.

The former Miss Mundy was graduated from the Granite City high school and Jewish Hospital School of Nursing. They will reside in Indianapolis.

Speed Control in Nameoki Awaiting Meet With Kluge

The Nameoki town board delayed action Monday night on the passage of proposed ordinances for a new traffic control program throughout the township, pending conferences with Harry Kluge, Madison county highway superintendent, concerning procedure and Illinois highway department requirements in such matters.

Township Highway Commissioner Charles Hanks and Nick Vassileff, township attorney, are to meet in Edwardsville Friday to discuss with Kluge the township's plan for more strict regulation of speed and installation of a series of stop signs. The program was initiated by the town board several months ago at Hanks' request. Hanks said speeding, particularly in heavily populated subdivisions has become a serious problem. Without ordinances, control is a difficult matter, he said.

Vassileff, who was to prepare ordinances for consideration in Monday night's meeting, pointed out to the board that under present law, the county highway superintendent can post signs for the township limiting speed to 30 miles per hour in so-called "urban areas" having a specified minimum population and being at least one-quarter mile in length. He said approximately 90% of the township could be accommodated with a 30-mile speed limit under this law without the necessity of immediate passage of ordinances.

30 Mph Too Fast
Hanks, however, said that he believes 30 miles per hour is too fast. Vassileff and Harry Briggs, township supervisor, explained that if the township wishes speed limitations below 30 miles per hour, those limits for the per hour, those limits for the township must be approved by the county board of supervisors, as soon as they are received.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Page 32 Thurs., Jan. 6, 1966

State law also requires the county highway superintendent make a complete engineering survey of the township prior to submitting such ordinances to the county board, and this would entail considerable expense, Briggs explained.

In addition, he added, speed limits and the signs in which they were instituted would be subject to approval by the state highway department. Vassileff said he believed it would be wise to discuss the matter with Kluge before taking further action.

Only routine business was conducted during the meeting Monday night. Hanks submitted to the board a check for $862 in motor fuel tax funds, representing a reimbursement for township money spent on maintenance of arterial highways. He also filed with the board a certificate from the state highway department declaring all township roads to be in excellent condition. Hanks said it was the first time such a certificate had been awarded the township.

A delegation of women asked Briggs to oppose the granting of a special use permit to Charles Montell for construction of an apartment building in a single-family residence area of Nameoki township. Briggs told the group that granting of the permit was under study of the county zoning board of appeals and that he was scheduled to meet with the board on the matter Jan. 11. Montell previously was denied a permit for construction of a combined barber shop, confectionery and apartment structure at the same location.

Briggs said all of the necessary forms for proceeding with the sanitary sewer program for township supervisor, explained that if the township wishes speed limitations below 30 miles per hour, those limits for the township must be approved by the county board of supervisors, as soon as they are received.

Mothers' March to be Held Here Jan. 31st

March of Dimes leaders in the Quad-Cities are completing plans this week for the annual outdoor "Mothers' March," slated for Monday evening, Jan. 31, and for distribution of canisters to business firms within the area.

Both projects will aid the 1966 fund-raising campaign being conducted this month by the Madison County March of Dimes Chapter.

Contributions from the Venice community are solicited through the annual "Crippled Children's Ball." Milton Morris, Venice March of Dimes chairman, said this year's affair is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 29, in the Venice-Madison American Legion Dugout, 704 Broadway.

Starting early Saturday, members of the Madison Junior Service Club will distribute canisters to Madison business establishments. It was announced today by Madison co-chairmen, Mrs. Julia Voloski and Mrs. Loretta Hylla.

The same women's organization also will spearhead this year's "Mothers' March," when all Madison residents will be asked to turn on their porch lights to aid the volunteer marchers. Plans for a teenage dance to augment the Madison drive for funds have not yet been completed, the chairmen said.

Granite City and Pontoon Beach campaign chairman, Daniel Linder of Tratters Men's shop, said today that Granite City Jaycees will handle canister distribution throughout the downtown and suburban areas.

Linder announced the appointment of Mrs. Peggy Burch and Mrs. Anna Mae Harris to head the Granite City "Mothers' March" also set for Monday, Jan. 31. Mrs. Grace Costello was appointed as chairman of the special gifts committee, while Vasil Effimoff will direct the public and parochial schools and college solicitation projects.

Teenage activities for the 1966 Granite City fund-raising drive will be coordinated by the Junior Leadership Girls' Club of Granite City high school, Linder reported.

Contributions again this year will be used to assist victims of polio, persons with congenital birth defects and to prevent polio through the free Sabin oral vaccine program. In addition, a portion of the money will further research work at the birth defects center at St. Louis Children's Hospital and help young people to continue their studies in the field of health education.

Between January 1964 and October 1965, the Madison county chapter awarded 11 health study scholarship grants to students totaling $3900. Within the same period, birth defects grants amounted to $1384. From June 1, 1964, to May 31, 1965, a total of $2626 was expended by the chapter on polio cases, while $10,000 was contributed in 1964 to the Sabin oral program in Madison county.

D. Dean Bridwell of Edwardsville is coordinating the county-wide campaign for the 1966 March of Dimes.

Roca Club Planning Musical Revue-Dinner

An unusual form of entertainment will be offered in the Quad-Cities during the last two weeks in January, when the Roca Young Men's Club of Granite City sponsors a four-performance musical revue, plus dinner, at the Rose Bowl restaurant. Proceeds will be used to further several charitable enterprises and help promote activities of the local youth group.

Entitled "ROCA Presents Broadway," the ambitious project includes a chicken or chopped steak dinner, followed with the revue, featuring song and dance numbers by Roca members and Roca Sweethearts, specialty performances by vocal music groups from Granite City high school also will be spotlighted.

Tickets, priced at $4.25 for orchestra seats and $4 for rear seats, may be purchased from Roca members, or reservations can be made by calling TR 6-9700, between 9 a.m.-5 p.m. daily.

Dates scheduled for the show are Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 19 and 20, with repeat performances the following Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 26 and 27. Dinner hour is set for 7:30 p.m. with show time at 8:30 p.m.

Program in Rehearsal

Experienced music instructors are directing the program, which has been under rehearsal for some time. They include Miss Rogers Davis, a Venice-school teacher, who previously traveled for one year with the Norman Luboff Choir.

Choreography is being handled by Miss Diana Nocheff, a teacher at Marshall school, who has starred in and directed many college dance productions, among other similar stage projects. Mrs. Carol Parker, a piano teacher, who specializes in classical music, is accompanist and music coordinator.

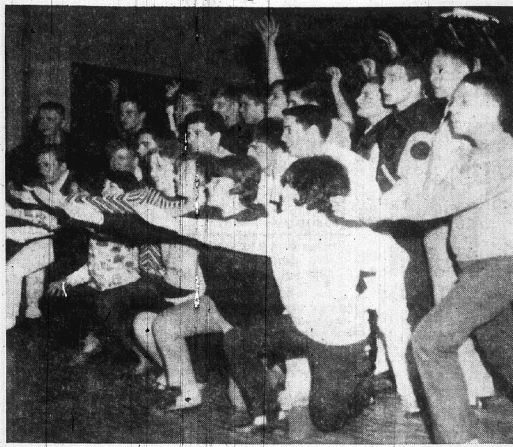

General chairman for the Roca Revue is Terry Lybarger, committee chairman include Peter Sabin, publicity and programs; Richard Poole, tickets and reservations; Jerry McKee, an personnel; Don Kirksey, art-work; costumes, Roca Sweethearts; Jerry McKee, liaison chairman; John Pinegar, staging; and Bob Odum, parking. Other club members will also be assisting in the production, check coats and serve

Musical Numbers

Taken from top Broadway musicals, numbers to be performed include: "Getting to Know You," "Steam Heat," "Nothing Like a Dame," "Together, Wherever We Go," "Lida Rose," "You'll Never Be Alone," "Gilding Through My Memories," "You've Gotta Have Heart," "It's a Scandal," "Kansas City," "Hernando Hideaway," and "I'm an Ordinary Man."

Performers are Danny Wilson, Ron and Rick Turner, Jim Little, McKeehan, Moore, Roger Love, Bob Johnston, Paul Hoffman, Rick Hensley, Steve Conway, Ernie Schwendeman, Ron Shepard, Ron Briggs, Pinegar, Kirksey, Poole, Harry Hartman, Tom Hewlett, Dwain Bridges, Mike Farrell, Dennis Thurston, Stanley Hoffman, Rich Kozar, Jeri Davis and Sabin.

Also to be featured are Roca Sweethearts, Colleen Robertson, Kathy Holmes and Janice Vicer, GCHS music students, Candice Jones and Gloria Schiber; and Roca Young Men's Club, including Simpson, Granite City high school vocal music instructor, Jim. Other club members will also be assisting in the production, check coats and serve

GUYS AND DOLLS, members of the Roca Young Men's Club and their "Sweethearts" rehearse for "Roca Presents Broadway," a musical revue and dinner program to be staged Jan. 19-20 and Jan. 26-27 at the Rose Bowl restaurant. The performances will benefit club charities and civic projects.

Geography Fellowships Offered by Southern

Fellowships, teaching assistantships and research grants are offered by the Southern Illinois University department of geography at Carbondale to qualified persons interested in graduate study in the 1966-67 school year.

The department offers fellowships to work toward master of arts, master of science and doctor of philosophy degrees.

Special interests of the faculty members make it possible to provide especially strong programs in physical geography, regional development, economic geography, water resources and the geography of Anglo-America and Latin America.

Information about financial programs and courses of study can be obtained by writing to Robert A. Harper, chairman of the SIU geography department at Carbondale.

Peace Corps Placement Tests Set for Saturday

Peace Corps placement tests will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday in Room 414, Federal building, 750 Missouri avenue, East St. Louis.

The Peace Corps uses the placement test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement.

Persons interested must fill out an application and present it to the tester before taking the test. Applications may be obtained from local post offices.

Students who live in off-campus housing near Southern Illinois University's Carbondale campus are renovating an old two-story house as an "off-campus student center."

VHS Seniors Wear New Class Rings; To Get I.D. Cards

By JUDY REIDELBERGER

Returning to school Monday after a vacation of nearly two weeks, Venice high school seniors found their identification cards were being prepared for them. They will be able to pick them up next week in the office.

Senior class members have a heavy hand now since they have received their class rings. They arrived just before the Christmas holidays.

Pictures were taken of the band, dance band, choruses and the student council by a studio photographer today. They will be placed in pages to be sent in the March shipment of the yearbook.

Junior Red Cross members held a bake sale before the holidays to help pay for favors they are currently making for Scott Air Force Base Hospital. They also are responsible for plates, napkins and centerpieces.

SIU Students to Erect Indian Earth Lodge

A class of Southern Illinois University students at Carbondale plans to erect an exact duplicate of a Northern Plains Indian earth lodge near Little Grassy Lake.

Hopefully, the students say, the duplication will be exact down to a floor composed of earth and dried buffalo bones, utensils made from buffalo bones and eight-foot deep caches for storing corn over the winter.

The site would be the Outdoor Education Center operated by SIU and the Council of 100 at the southeast side of Little Grassy Lake.

PELL to Use Colored Cover for New Edition

Coincident with becoming the official publication of the Midwest Modern Language Association, PELL (Papers on Language and Literature) will inaugurate the use of a colored cover with its new edition, according to Prof. Nicholas Josse of Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus, editor of the quarterly.

Keyed to the four seasons, subsequent issues will be a blue cover in winter, green in the spring, pink in summer and terracotta in the autumn.

Introduced last March, the first volume of PELL was completed this fall. The current issue includes another view of "The Wife's Lament" as seen by Thomas M. Davis of the SIU English faculty at Carbondale; an unpublished Washington Irving manuscript by Prof. John Francis McDermott of the SIU humanities division; and further sources for Graham Greene's "The Second Death" by Prof. Marion Taylor, also of the humanities division, and John

Other features range from "Gulliver the Pretender" and "Eats the Rhyme" to Grammatical Expressions of Emotiveness.

Slip cases for the first volume will be sold through the university's business office, and bound copies will be available for use in the SIU libraries.

SIU-SW United Fund Drive Termed Success

Results of the first all-campus United Fund drive at the Southern Illinois University, Campus were better than predicted, Prof. Cameron Meredith, head of the university's state and national public services division who spearheaded the drive, announced today.

The average contribution of the 300 faculty and staff members who gave was "substantial," he said. Several communities will receive cash and personal pledges as well as monthly checks from payroll deduction pledges.

Of the $4350 received to date, the Edwardsville-Glen Carbon and Alton-Wood River United Funds will receive about $2000 each and the rest will go to the Trichtles, Belleville, East St. Louis, Troy and St. Louis funds.

Meredith said "our total effort will clearly indicate the university's sincere interest in the welfare of communities in this area."

Southern Illinois University's Small Business Institute has prepared a directory of Southern Illinois manufacturers.

Council Oks Bills, Half-Month Payroll Totalling $115,990

A $78,140 bill list and a $37,850 half-month payroll were approved Monday night by Granite City council members.

The largest item on the bill list was payment of $59,855 to Nelson Construction Co. for work under estimate No. 13 for the city sewage treatment plant being built at the Granite City Army Depot. It is scheduled for completion this spring.

In addition, the city paid $238 to the firm of Sheppard, Morgan & Schaub for engineering services in connection with the treatment plant.

Final payment of $4674 for the West Granite fire station was included for Henry Ross Construction Co.

Other major payments were $850 to Paul Seebold Concrete Co. for raising structures at 2207 Benton street and 2028 Twelfth street; $840 for white traffic paint to be given to the highway department for striping state routes through the city; $2007 paid to Great Lakes Fire Equipment Co. for fire hose; $1470 to East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. for December rental on 360 fire hydrants; and $825 to Chicago Title & Trust Co. for 33 title binders requested for the North Nameoki road widening project.

Expense allowances included on the bill list were $253 for Mayor Partney, including $125 car expense, $55 for lunches, $45 for flowers and $50 for dinners; and $80 for Alderman Steve Basarich for November and December expenses.

Collinsville Woman Dies at Local Hospital

Miss Clara A. Schmidt, 65, of 639 Lillian street, Collinsville, a retired government clerk, was dead upon arrival Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital. She had been under medical care for the past few months.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. today in Collinsville for Miss Schmidt, who had been employed for 17 years in Washington, D. C., and for a number of years in the county clerk's office in Edwardsville. Surviving is a brother, Otto Schmidt, of Collinsville.

Plan Testimonial for Senator Paul Douglas

A $50-per-plate testimonial dinner for Senator Paul H. Douglas, Democrat of Illinois, is planned Jan. 27 at which W. Willard Wirtz, secretary of the Department of Labor, will be the principal speaker.

The dinner will be given at 8:30 p.m. in Augustine's restaurant, Belleville.

The dinner is sponsored by state central committee of the 21st, 23rd and 24th congressional districts.

Tickets may be obtained from Walter "Buck" Simmons, 1028 Third street, Venice; Mayor Alvin G. Fields of East St. Louis and Sheriff Maurice Joseph at Belleville.

Enforcement of GC Dog Leash Law Starts Next Week

Enforcement of the city's dog leash law was announced today by Jack Fricker, city inspector, because of the number of dogs roaming neighborhoods. The enforcement is to start next week.

"We are having so many complaints that the human officer is unable to catch up," he said.

The city ordinance declares it unlawful to permit dogs to run at large in the city. It provides penalties of $10 to $50 for each offense.

Fricker said that especially the larger dogs are a nuisance and can be dangerous to people and to smaller animals. The ordinance also provides that loose dogs should be muzzled sufficiently to keep them from biting.

Violators will be warned first, to keep their dogs on a leash when they are off the owner's property, and arrests will follow on further violations, Fricker said.

Man Gets 24 Days in Jail

Donald Ray Carney, 24, of 2435 Logan street, was sentenced to a total of 24 days in the county jail Monday in magistrate's court on two charges of disorderly conduct and one of disobeying a police officer. He was arrested Dec. 14 by Madison and Granite City police and has been in custody since.

Kiwanis Installation Set for Next Monday

Plans for the Granite City Kiwanis' annual installation ceremony were discussed Monday evening by retiring president Herbert R. Schannott, who announced that Lt. Gov. Vasil C. Compton of the Kiwanis 14th Division will serve as the installing officer. Compton, a mechanical engineer employed with an architectural engineering firm, is a member of the East St. Louis Kiwanis Club.

The installation ceremonies will be conducted Monday evening at the Rose Bowl restaurant, where members gathered this week for a year-end business meeting and dinner. Eighteen were present.

Those to be installed are: Peter F. Jellon, president; Melvin T. Gillette, first vice-president; Michael Tondas, second vice-president; Marvin Barnes, treasurer; William Herman, secretary; and board members, Robert Lombardi, Eugene Frey, Bernard Miller Jr., Roy Graham and Guy Chism.

The remainder of Monday evening's session was spent preparing the 1966 budget and in routine business transactions.

Check Design Of Electrical Appliances

How satisfactory will this appliance work? How easily will it clean?

These questions are bound to arise in shopping for such electrical appliances as coffee makers, waffle makers, toasters and mixers. To help answer these questions you should look for these features while shopping:

Coffee makers—Check to make sure the stem, basket and lid fit securely when assembled in the pot. An inside surface of stainless steel or glass ceramic material makes for easy cleaning. Immersion pots, those with probe controls, are more easily handled for cleaning than others. A control for reheating is desirable, especially for larger than eight-cup models. A 111 pot should be easy to pour if its handle fits the hand comfortably.

Waffle Bakers—Since these appliances are used at a table, insulated feet and handles are important. For safe operation, be sure that the distance between the table surface and the bottom of the appliance measures at least one inch. To get crisp waffles, look for an expansion hole that allows the batter to expand as it cooks. An overflow rim can prevent extra time for cleanup as well as contain any overflow. Browning of the waffles. Also look at the height and placement of the knobs on the grid. The taller and closer they are, the crisper the waffle.

Toasters—Look for insulated feet and handles. A crumb tray that can be removed easily for cleaning is desirable. The heat given off from burning accumulated toast crumbs can prevent fire.

American National Bank Stockholders Meet Set

The annual meeting of stockholders of the American National Bank of Granite City will be held from 4 to 4:30 p.m. Jan. 19 in its banking rooms.

Directors for the ensuing year will be elected and other business will be conducted.

With the notice of the meeting, the bank enclosed dividend checks based on 40 cents per share held by stockholders on Dec. 31.

A statement of condition shows an increase of deposits of about 19% during 1965 to $7,407,723, and Harold F. Karandjef, bank president, said in his report that the past year has been one of good demand for loans which he expects to continue during 1966. The statement of condition showed total assets of $7,536,736, including cash and due from banks, $803,680, U. S. government securities, $2,400,225, other securities, $210,847, loans and discounts, $3,961,791, other assets of $39,297 and building, furniture and fixtures, $231,023.

The report also shows capital stock of $200,000, surplus of $163,000, undivided profits of $33,287, unearned discount of $27,728 and reserves of $61,117.

$20 Gambling Fine Set

Lucious Jordan, 35, of 810 Jackson street, West Madison, was fined $20 plus $5 costs on a gambling charge Monday in magistrate's court. The charge was filed Dec. 14 by Madison police.

County Chairmen Represent State House Districts

The Illinois Representative Committee will consist of county chairmen of the Democratic and Republican parties until the 1968 primary election in all counties, except Cook county, according to a ruling by Attorney General William G. Clark.

The county chairmen will serve as representative committeemen in each of the 28 House representative districts, which includes any part of his county.

Clark held that state statutes do not provide for a call to be issued for an organizational meeting of the representative committee prior to the 1966 primary, and therefore the call must be issued in accordance with the statute.

Clark's arrival emphasizes the need for a family to know what to do if their house catches fire.

Here are some suggestions to remember:

Teach your children how to exit safely from their bedrooms through the doorway and hall. Include these pointers: If you smell smoke, place your hand high against the bedroom door. If the door doesn't feel hot, brace your body against it and open it a crack. Be ready to shut it quickly if the draft feels hot. When you are sure that it's safe, try the stairs. Keep as close as possible to the floor.

If the door does feel hot, don't open it. The hall outside will be a deadly trap of superheated air and gas. Exit some other way or wait for help.

Show children how to escape from their bedroom if the door way is blocked. Encourage them to act quickly, but not thoughtlessly. Review possibilities periodically to reduce the chances of panic.

Teach children to dial "0" in case of emergencies. They can be expected to remember phone numbers. Instruct them to tell the operator what is wrong so that she can help.

Be sure they know their home address. Instruct older children regarding specific duties they are expected to perform if fire erupts.

Remember, the first move when you discover fire is to get everyone out of the house. Only after you do this should you call the fire department. Then try to control the blaze until the firemen come.

Church Construction Causes Drainage Problem on Richmond Ave. for City

Construction of a church has caused a drainage problem for the city, since the once-vacant tract had provided a surface water reservoir at Wabash and Richmond avenues. A runoff to the nearby Nunsokki storm water drainage ditch is planned.

With the construction of the new church building for Hope Lutheran, the reservoir was switched to the intersection, and there is severe damage to the streets. It was reported to the city by Alderman Sternberg, chairman of the Street committee.

Since the solution to the drainage problem will involve work by the street department in deepening an existing runoff ditch along Richmond avenue to the drainage channel, three or four driveway culverts will be needed.

Claims City Responsibility
Sternberg called for the city to buy and install the culverts at the private driveway, pointing out the city had the responsibility for correcting the drainage problem.

Strong protest was voiced by Alderman Whitmer, a former Street committee chairman, who said the city policy had been for the property owner to provide the culvert with the city carrying out the installation.

The motion for the street department to provide the block-long drainage was approved by a vote of 14-0, with Whitmer and Bartoskiak objecting.

Acceptance of a $36,000 offer from the state highway department for the police firing range, which will be on the right-of-way for the Great River road, was approved by the council on recommendation of the Police and Finance committees.

City records still are being searched to determine if the money can be placed in a special fund for future construction of a building for the police department on the city-owned block at 23rd street and Madison avenue.

It can be used for the "payment," Alderman Whitmer told the council, "and we can set up a firing range in the basement of the new building."

Hirings Pending
The city still is in the process of hiring two men as replacements for the street department which has an authorized work force of 25 men with only 23 on the job at present.

Alderman Thompson, chairman of the Personnel committee, said he has written to the business agents of the Laborers Union asking for the names of six persons for the two jobs, but that he had not heard from the union.

Alderman Nunn told the council he had been telephoned by Streets Supt. Warfield, who was busy with the flu, and that Thompson replied that he would write another letter to the union.

Asking that the men arrange for interviews with the Personnel committee, Nunn added that if the men were not acceptable to the committee or to the mayor's authority to appoint, the union would send another.

In connection with city hirings, of the Special Pollution Abatement committee, reminded Alderman Pulley, 22½ State street.

Approved by the council was a meeting for 7:30 p.m. next Monday in the council room to Steel Foundries for a tract of sanitary sewers in areas of the city not served.

$50,000 Lawsuit
Referred to the city attorney was a circuit court summons in a $50,000 lawsuit against the city of right-of-way for the new Great River road and ball diamonds last September when he told off there had to be abandoned. On his bicycle on the sidewalk at the American Steel tract, which is northwest corner of 22nd and west of the steel firm's parking lot, the city plans to provide a recreation area to replace the quonset hut site.

The quonset hut site of Cedar street is to be used partially as a right-of-way for the new Great River road and ball diamonds last September when he told off there had to be abandoned. On his bicycle on the sidewalk at the American Steel tract, which is northwest corner of 22nd and west of the steel firm's parking lot, the city plans to provide a recreation area to replace the quonset hut site.

Alderman Moerlein, chairman Pulley to fall. The suit was filed playground.
